PREFACE

This volume of the History and Genealogy of the Herring Family of Pennsylvania represents the known descendants of John George Herring (Johann Görg Hörung), the first of a number of pioneers of our name to settle in the Province.

The present effort is dedicated to the primary principle that HISTORY, like Charity, should begin at home, with the family; that honor of family and pride of person are still noble virtues; that recognition of the past is a prelude to advancement; and that we should pioneer our own 'new frontiers' by the light of HISTORY.

GENEALOGY is a reminder that none of us are initial creations, but a composite of our progenitors. To them we owe all we are or ever hope to be. We do not choose our forbears, we accept them and carry on. Of the New Testament, the first seventeen verses are GENEALOGY.

We further dedicate this effort as a MEMORIAL to those who have gone before, that we in turn might live and serve.

A typical Pennsylvania pioneer FAMILY, by Providence we have survived, by Destiny we have been both root-fast and foot-free, for two centuries and more, in the good and broad land of our progenitor's choice. This is our HERITAGE, a continuing inspiration for the young, and a lasting compensation for the old.

Now dispersed throughout this land of ours, we can be brought together only in a BOOK, a book that can but dimly, if at all, recapture and portray the innumerable scenes and players of the past, forgotten all too soon.

Our book has been compiled and is being published by one of us for all of us, without embellishment, or pretension to prescribed form, but designed to fill our particular need in the preservation of our history and heritage, in-so-far as it could be retrieved from obscurity and saved from oblivion.

We shall not measure any success, nor recount our failings, in making the book comprehensive in scope, but humbly submit that within our capacity we have made the effort, not because of its importance, but as a matter of principle.

Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. 1962

THE RESEARCH

There comes a time to all of us, quite early in life and again in the evening years, when human dignity thirsts for knowledge of our personal origin and history. To supply this vital need in our family, and discharge an obligation to future generations, a broad ten year research campaign has been conducted.

Our private records are scarce and meager. PUBLIC RECORDS of all kinds pertaining to our name, regardless of spelling or relationship, had to be found wheresoever and transcribed, item by item. This work has been done in the offices of 39 eastern and central Pennsylvania county courthouses. The ten United States census schedules of 60 Pennsylvania counties, from 1790 through 1880, have been read and innumerable transcriptions made, a very complete and authentic source, but all unindexed except 1790. Most of the old cemeteries have been searched, stone by stone. Old church and ministerial records or copies thereof, and the published Pennsylvania Archives, as well as the local county histories, and old newspaper files, all have been drawn upon. The procedure involved over 108,000 miles of travel, and an indeterminable amount of homework.

We owe our everlasting thanks to all institutions whose records we have used; may they be defended against all enemies, internal and external, always.

Then there were the hundreds of QUERIES sent through the mail, in-state and particularly out-of-state, that have been answered by members of the family, often involving extensive effort, which we hereby acknowledge with thanks and appreciation.

As to our EUROPEAN background, the family having had no evidence or tradition as to its exact origin, it was your compiler's original sense to omit this facet entirely. Nevertheless, in due time we did submit a list of the Herring immigrants, and our associate ancestor, Andreas Unangst, to five professional genealogists in Europe. One of them, Dr. Herbert Leutz, promptly reported record of our Unangst family in Baden (Family A). But of the Herrings, none were definitely located. Subsequently one of the five genealogists was reengaged, but a two year search for our particular Herring ancestor again failed, possibly due to his status as an exile. (Titles III, IV).

This MATERIAL, from all sources, pertaining to the descendants of the several Herring immigrants, has been correlated into separate file folios, one for each family-head, arranged in numerical order of descent. These files in a four-drawer firesafe filing cabinet will, after your compiler's decease, pass to the CUSTODY of the Historical Society of Berks County in Reading, Pennsylvania, or alternate or successor, under a testamentary perpetual Trust, for preservation and reference, in the public interest.

Title II

OUR NAME

THE SPELLING: Our family name is now and always has been spelled various ways. In early records the spelling of German names was commonly phonetic, not standardized, and often varied even in the same document. The Anglicizing of family names inevitably resulted in spelling variants. Spelling on grave markers erected at different times on the same lot vary in some cases, and the spelling on the family-head's own marker usually reflects the preference of his heirs rather than his own.

Our senior immigrant ancestor himself changed his signature from 'Höring' to 'Hering' late in life, and as a young man, before exile from Lorraine, he probably spelled it 'Hareng,' French. His descendants almost invariably held to the German form, 'Hering,' until about Civil War time. This has now been largely superseded by the English form, 'Herring,' and the Dutch form, 'Haring,' in about equal proportion.

Descendants now living (1962), born under the several forms of spelling, are in ratios as follows: Herring 38%, Haring 39%, Hering 12%, Harring 10%, and Hearing 1%. This book however includes 1st generation descendants born under collateral names, but Herring, etc., on their maternal side. By combining these two classes of descendants now living, the respective ratios are as follows: Herring 40%, Haring 34%, Hering 14%, Harring 10%, and Hearing 2%.

In our time it is inadvisable to change the spelling of names as it complicates matters like employment records, bank accounts, deeds, securities, social security, and results in an 'alias' this or an 'also-known-as' that, after your name.

THE MEANING: The family name 'Herring' in its various forms of spelling is derived from an old Teutonic personal name meaning 'Son of Heri.' 'Heri' means 'the Army.' Consequently 'Herring' as a personal name means 'Son of the Army,' or in a word, 'Soldier.'

Likewise, the principal fish in commerce is called the 'herring,' derived from 'heri,' by reason of its moving in schools, like an army.

The family name 'Unangst' means 'Without Fear,' or in a word, 'Fearless.' So then in combination, 'Unangst-Herring' means 'FEARLESS SOLDIER.'

Title III

OUR HUGUENOT ANCESTOR

John George Herring was a native of LORRAINE, France, and a resident of Berks County, Pennsylvania in 1754, according to the book entitled "Memorials of the Huguenots in America," by the Rev. Dr. Ammon Stapleton, A.B., M.S., A.M., D.D., published in 1901 by The Huguenot Publishing Company, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, page 152.

Later, on Sept. 11, 1909, Dr. Stapleton read a paper before the Historical Society of Berks County, on "The Huguenot Element in the Settlement of Berks County," reprinted in the 1909 "Transactions" of the Society, Volume II, page 387, in which Herring is mentioned on pages 398 and 399. The article also appears in the periodical, "The Pennsylvania German" for July, 1910, Volume XI, page 438.

Dr. Stapleton, an accepted authority on the subject, was born Jan. 15, 1850 in Earl Township, (Oley Valley), Berks County, and died Sept. 18, 1916 in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

Title IV

THE HUGUENOTS IN EUROPE

The French Protestants, in the main, were followers of the teachings of the French born religious reformer John Calvin, 1509-1561, and were especially numerous in the eastern Departments of France. They were shorn of their civil rights and religious freedom on the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685, and were called 'Huguenots' by the ruling French kings, Louis XIV, XV and XVI, as a term of reproach.

After Alsace and Lorraine were ceded to France in the Treaty of Ryswick in 1697, and until the Edict of Toleration in 1768, the Huguenots were severely, even mortally persecuted for their religion. Persecution through these many years however made a strong and resolute race of them, those that survived. Their dispersal to other lands proved to be extremely devastating to the economy of the kingdom they fled, and a major stimulus to that of the countries they resettled in.

It is estimated that half a million of these people of fortitude migrated from eastern France to the convenient Protestant German provinces in the Rhine Valley, and as many more to the states of Switzerland and Holland, where, in recognition of their character and competence, they were heartily received and graciously given refuge.

In consequence and appreciation of this good relationship in the German provinces, those not of previous German background promptly adopted the language and customs of their benefactors, and largely changed their French names to the German equivalents. And further, many readily embraced Lutheranism, the prevailing religion in the German provinces.

As a result of this almost complete assimilation, the Huguenots have lost, in the main, the recognition in history that they deserve, but not their IMMORTAL SPIRIT.

Title V

PENNSYLVANIA IN THE MAKING

On March 4, 1681, Charles II, King of England, in the settlement of certain indebtedness, granted to his subject, William Penn (1644-1718), a charter in perpetuity to certain territory in North America, making it a province and dominion to be called 'Pennsylvania.' Penn, his heirs and deputies were given authority to establish laws in the Province, with the approval of its inhabitants, and not contrary to the laws of the Kingdom; to appoint judges and officials; to maintain courts and ordinances; to punish evildoers; to divide the Province into counties and townships; to establish ports and transportation; to adopt measures for safety and defense; to grant land in fee simple; and further, Penn, his heirs and assigns, were granted the promise that there would be no taxes imposed by the King upon the inhabitants or their property, without their consent.

The proprietorship rights were respected by the people until 1779, when the Pennsylvania Assembly paid the Penn heirs 130,000 Pounds for their interests, a very conscientious gesture of fairness to the Penns as individuals, although British subjects, in view of the Declaration of Independence of 1776 from the King and his authority.

The charter had granted all faithful British subjects freedom to settle in the Province, and Penn thus founded the City of Philadelphia, largely with Quakers, whose religion he had himself embraced.

THE RHINE MIGRATION: In order to populate and improve the interior of his Province, William Penn personally turned to the Rhine Valley in Europe to solicit settlers. He had been there previously and knew the character of its people. He spoke their language, his mother having been a Hollander. Thus began the great migration from the Rhine to Pennsylvania, to continue and greatly increase during the Proprietorship of his sons and heirs, John Penn (1699-1746), Thomas Penn (1702-1775), and Richard Penn (1706-1771).

Letters from the early settlers reached the homeland, praising the new land where the farmer need pay no tithes and share no crops. Some of these letters got printed and widely circulated. Civilization was looking West and Pennsylvania was seen as the ethnic land of opportunity, where the language of the homeland was spoken, its customs observed and its religion respected.

The perils and rigors of the passage over the great sea were known, but these were innately adventurous and courageous people, and many thousands took the risk. The migration grew and reached its peak during the years of 1749 through 1754, when an average of eighteen ships per season arrived at Philadelphia with some 400 passengers each.

THE VOYAGE: To arrive at Philadelphia in the month of August, as our ancestor did in 1750, emigrants from the upper Rhine Valley had to leave the homeland no later than April. There was no politically unified Germany then, with a single customs border, but a series of principalities to pass through on the river passage down the Rhine to the seaport of Rotterdam in Holland. This necessitated numerous border customs stops and delays for check of person and baggage, taking more than a month.

Then there were embarkation delays at Rotterdam, and the channel voyage to and stopover at Cowes, Isle of Wight, England, taking most or all of another month, and finally the long ocean voyage to Philadelphia, taking about two months, depending on wind and weather.

To cite the passage of Colonel Michael Lindemuth (1737-1785), also a native of Bödighheim, Baden, Germany, who immigrated with his parents in 1752, two years after the Herrings, and later was closely associated with them (AA-1): The Lindemuth family embarked at Muehlbach on the Neckar River on May 5th and arrived at Philadelphia on September 21st, 1752. The Neckar and Rhine river passage and embarkation at Rotterdam required seven weeks, and the sea voyage thirteen weeks.

Title VI

THE SHIP LISTS

In 1727 and 1729 the Province of Pennsylvania enacted laws requiring all foreigners, that is, other than British subjects, arriving at the Port of Philadelphia, to take the oath of allegiance to George II, King of England, and the oath of fidelity to the Proprietors and laws of the Province. Thereafter all male passengers of sixteen years of age and over, signed their respective Ship Lists at the old Court House on High Street, now Market, at Second, in Philadelphia. Practically all of these original lists are now in the custody of the Division of Public Records of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission in Harrisburg. The lists have been photocopied and published in 1931 in "Pennsylvania German Pioneers," by Ralph Beaver Strassberger and Wm. J. Hinke, in three volumes, available at most public libraries.

The lists do not give the place of origin of the passengers, however practically all of the signatures are written in German, and incidentally, very few by mark, indicating a high percentage of literacy of the immigrants.

THE HERRING IMMIGRANTS: The Ship lists include thirteen Herring immigrants, namely:

1. Aug. 24, 1750, Johann Görg Horing,
2. Sept. 7, 1751, John Henrich Hering,
3. " " " Philip Wendel Horing,
4. " " " Johann Henrich Hering,
5. Sept. 24, 1751, Johannes Horing,
6. " " " Johannes Hering,
7. " " " Johann Ludwig Horing,
8. Oct. 4, 1751, Johann Frederick Hering,
9. Oct. 16, 1751, Fridrich Hering,
10. Sept. 28, 1753 (Johann) Jacob Hering,
11. Oct. 2, 1753, Johann Jörg Christoffel Hering,
12. Sept. 30, 1754, Ludwig Hering, and
13. Nov. 10, 1767, Courad Hering.

The 2nd, 3rd and 4th were father and sons, as were also the 5th, 6th, 7th and 10th. Relationship of the others, if any, has not been ascertained.

As stated in the Preface, this volume represents the first above named immigrant and his progeny only. Furthermore, this compilation may conceivably be only half of its potential size, as this family consists of two main stems, designated 'AA' and 'AB,' and we have been able to only account for the 'AA' families through the generations to date. The 'AB' stem disappeared from Northumberland County and the State in about 1829, in the persons of J. George Hering, born Nov. 21, 1779, and his brother Solomon, born Feb. 26, 1802. This stem has defied detection to date.

Partial compilation of the other segments of the family in Pennsylvania has also been made, but their completion and publication is indeterminate at this time.

OUR SHIP COMES IN: The ship 'Brothers,' operated by Captain Wm. Muir, on its maiden voyage from Rotterdam, Holland, via Cowes, England, to Philadelphia, arrived on August 24, 1750, with 271 passengers, including our ancestor, Johann Görg Horing. This captain and vessel made one round trip in each of the next four years, each time arriving at Philadelphia in the month of September, approximately four weeks later than on the first trip, apparently the best sailing.

It should also be noted that our ancestor's arrival date, Aug. 24, 1750, is by the OLD STYLE CALENDAR then in use. The date would be Sept. 4, 1750, by the New Style, our present calendar, which however did not come into use in Great Britain and its colonies until in 1752, when eleven days were dropped out. Ordinarily the date of record of an event stands, although Washington's birthday which occurred February 11th Old Style, is being celebrated February 22nd New Style.

Title VII

THE FRONTIER

In 1750, at the time of our ancestor's arrival in the virgin sylvan land of Pennsylvania, only ~~three~~ ^{two} counties had been organized, namely, Philadelphia, Bucks and Chester, with their northern and western reaches open to the limits of the Province, although at that time the BLUE MOUNTAIN, from the Delaware River to Maryland, was the frontier.

The sons of William Penn, John, Thomas and Richard, the Proprietors of the Province, had in 1732 purchased from the several tribes of Lenni-Lenape Indians, the lands drained by the river Schuylkill, from South Mountain to Blue Mountain. This included the headwaters of Mill Creek, originally known as Maxatawny Creek, in the northeastern part of the purchase, where our ancestor settled. Lands to the east of this purchase were acquired through the so-called Walking Purchase in 1737.

Lands north of Blue Mountain had not been purchased and opened to settlement until 1749. The few Indians remaining south of Blue Mountain, lived peacefully among the white settlers until the French and Indian War, when hostile Indians from the North were incited into harassing the frontier. A series of forts and patrols were established along the length of Blue Mountain for the protection of the settlers, but were inadequate. Numerous Indian raids and atrocities did occur in the belt south of the mountain during the years 1755 through 1758, and one final attack in Albany Township on Sept. 8, 1763, in which two adults and six children were killed and two taken captive.

The nearest of these incidents to the Herring family occurred on July 9, 1757, involving five families in Lynn and Greenwich townships. These were the perilous years on our frontier.

LAND WARRANTS: On application, signed by the prospective settler and purchaser, a Warrant for the vacant land of the applicant's choice, usually a hundred acres or more, was issued by the "Secretaries Office of the Proprietaries" in Philadelphia, to Nicholas Scull, Surveyor General, and signed by James Hamilton, the Governor in our ancestor's time. These original Applications and Warrants and the resulting Surveys are now in the custody of the Bureau of Land Records of the Pennsylvania Department of Internal Affairs in Harrisburg.

Subsequent Deeds of sale are on record at the respective county court-houses, if recorded. Deed endorsements, deeds, deed polls, and agreements of sale were commonly drawn up by the nearest Justice of the Peace, but many were never recorded at the county seat, consequently many titles are now impossible of tracing to the original Warrant.

THE PIONEER ROADS: The roads of the Pennsylvania pioneer of 1750 fanned out to the north and west from Philadelphia to the various sectors including Oley, Maxatawny, Macungie, and Allemangel beyond Maxatawny. One of these was the Springhouse to Sunnyside road, where the Maxatawny and the Macungie roads began. The Maxatawny road crossed South Mountain to Longswamp, Maxatawny and Allemangel, and in later years, across Blue Mountain to Orwigsburg.

The inference therefor is that on his arrival in Philadelphia, our ancestor remained there only long enough to ascertain his destination on the frontier, and then proceeded there by the shortest route, that is, by way of Germantown, Springhouse, Sunnyside, Hereford and Longswamp, to his place of settlement on the headwaters of Mill Creek, then in Allemangel in Philadelphia County. The route was all in that county, close to and paralleling the left side of the county line, bordering Bucks County, and running in a straight line northwesterly from seaport to Blue Mountain.

The first Lutheran church and school of Greenwich Township, now New Bethel Zion, were shortly after located on this pioneer road, which in this area is now only a local road.

Title VIII

ALLEMANGEL (FAMINE) IN PENNSYLVANIA

Before 1752, when Berks and Northampton counties were organized, Allemangel embraced the present townships of Albany and Greenwich in Berks County, and the present townships of Lynn and Weisenberg in Lehigh County. It was a land of fertile soil and unfailing waters, then well wooded and abounding in deer and turkey, chestnuts and the hickory-nut, persimmons and sugar maple, a variety of grapes and berries, wild honey and trout, and its climate was characteristic of that to which its settlers had been accustomed in the Rhine Valley.

The first contingent of settlers obviously aspired to name their bailiwick in the new world, in memory of their Alemannic ancestors in the old world. THE ALEMANNI, coming out of northeast Europe, appeared in the Rhine Valley in the 4th and 5th centuries, and were the largest aggregation of the several Germanic peoples of the time. Their descendants became the backbone of the populations of the German duchies of Württemberg and Baden, of Frankish Alsace and Lorraine, and of Rhenish Switzerland, whence came the bulk of the settlers of rural southeastern Pennsylvania.

In reference to the region so called, the name 'Allemangel,' literally meaning 'want of everything,' undoubtedly originated as a facetious mimicry of the name 'Alemanni,' meaning 'all men.' The implication by the 'Tamine' historians, that the settlers found this region undesirable, is of course absurd. Nevertheless, the more humorous appellation 'Allemangel' prevailed and is recorded so in the land warrants, surveys and deeds of the time.

Title IX

GREENWICH TOWNSHIP, OUR CRADLE

After the County of Berks was formed in 1752, the part of Allemangel within its limits was divided by an east-west line into two approximately equal districts. In the first assessment list for county tax, dated 1754, the upper half was called 'Albany,' and the lower half was called 'The District Adjoining Maxatawny;' however, in the next assessment, dated 1756, the latter district was designated 'Greenwich Township.' Our ancestor's chosen place of settlement fell into the northeastern corner of Greenwich where he lived the remainder of his venturesome life.

THE HUGUENOT ELEMENT: In the great migration from the Rhine Valley to Pennsylvania, the Huguenot element, although very considerable, cannot be accurately determined, as the ship lists do not give the national origin of the passengers. Many of the family names recognized by Dr. Stapleton and others as Huguenots are found in the early church records and tax lists of Greenwich Township, namely; Arnold, Bailey, Bauer, Bieber, Biehl, Billig, Brobst, Conrad, DeHoff, DeLong, Fegely (Voegli), Gehret, Gehringer, Gerber, Grim, Hauser, Herring, Hoch, Kiefer (Fonnelie), Lantz(ard), (La)Saul, Levan, Loy (Lei), Merkle, Moser, Momme, Stein (LaPiere), Stettler, Uhl, et al.

While name alone does not necessarily determine national origin, the Huguenot element undoubtedly represented a substantial proportion of the initial population of Greenwich.

Irrelevant but an example was one of the Herring immigrants, Johann Lutzig Höring, settler in (now) Montgomery County, who was a co-passenger of Jean Pierre Arnoul, arriving in Philadelphia, Sept. 24, 1751, (Memorials of the Huguenots, Stapleton, 1901, p. 149). Then on Feb. 1, 1756 in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Red Hill, Peter Arnold had a child baptized and the sponsors were Ludwig Hering and wife, so recorded in German. Differently spelled and shortened names, but definitely the same individuals, then neighbors in Pennsylvania, and quite possibly former neighbors in France. Relationship to the Greenwich Herrings, if any, has not been determined.

Title X

THE GREENWICH CONGREGATION

Predating this church, four others had been established on the rim of a radius of about five or six miles out by foot or horseback from the neighborhood of the Herrings in eastern Greenwich Township, namely: Dunkel's Reformed to the west in Greenwich, New Jerusalem (Red) Lutheran to the north in Albany Township, Ziegel Lutheran to the east in Weisenberg Township, and Maxatawny Lutheran to the south in the township of that name. Incidentally, early ministerial records of the latter two have been lost by fire or otherwise.

An additional church at the hub of this rim was probably justified by the increasing population but retarded by the French and Indian War. Then in the Spring of 1761, according to their record book, the Evangelical Lutherans of Greenwich resolved to build a church. The erection of a stone building was begun, and on May 18, 1761, the Rev. Bernhard M. Hausihl of Reading officiated at the CORNERSTONE LAYING.

The land, two acres, had been donated by Michael and Anna Ursula Schmiedt (Smith), who had immigrated in 1733, (co-passengers of Frederick Leiby, AA-1-7-2.) On June 19, 1762, a delegate of the Congregation called on the Rev. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg, in (now) Trappe, Pennsylvania, with a letter requesting admission to the Synod, and the services of the Rev. Johann H. Schaum as pastor.

The church completed was DEDICATED on October 3, 1762, by Pastor Schaum and named 'Bethel.' In early Synod records it was called the 'Greenwich Congregation', and is now 'NEW BETHEL ZION CHURCH.'

While the neighboring churches mentioned were all of log construction, this new church was the first one of solid stone masonry and was popularly known as "THE STONE CHURCH." It was still so called by the older people in your compiler's memory. It served the community for forty years until on November 27, 1802, the Congregation was assembled to decide on whether to renovate the old church or build a new one, and voted 21 to 5 to build A NEW CHURCH.

George Kamp (AA-4), leader in the building of the first church, was still living, age 91 and senior Elder when the vote was taken. However, Michael Croll, now junior Elder and leading citizen, was the leader in the building of the second church, and kept a daily journal and detailed account of its construction. Thereafter it was also called 'Croll's Church.' In January, February and March of 1803, stone was broken on the land of GEORGE HERRING III (AA-1), and at Spitzenberg to the west, for the building of the new church, and stone from the razing of the old church was re-used. The framework was erected in July, the shingles hauled from Philadelphia in August, and the building completed in October of that year. This building in turn was razed in 1923 and replaced by the third and present edifice, also of stone.

THE RECORD BOOK for the founding Congregation was opened by Pastor Schaum and signed by the Elders, namely, Georg Kamp, Christian Unger, GÖRG HÖRING and ANDREAS UNANGST, on July 21, 1763. Georg Kamp, 1711-1801, (AA-4), a native of Baden, immigrated with Andreas Unangst (A), and was lay organizer of the Congregation. He owned and occupied a 150 acre tract to the west of and adjoining the Herring homestead, presently occupied by Paul B. Peters, and on the 1876 county map, by M. Grim. One of Kamp's sons married into the Herring family (AA-1). Christian Unger immigrated on September 19, 1752, and lived west of Andreas Unangst.

The Book contains entries from 1761 through 1802, 42 years, and the three most numerous names in it are HERRING, 79 ENTRIES, Kamp 80, and Dressler 68. The first two BAPTISMS recorded were grandchildren of John George Herring, the first American born of the family (AA-1, AB-1). Also entered are the first Articles of Government for the Church, dated Christmas Day, 1761, and signed, 1st by Georg Kamp (AA-1), 2nd Andreas Unangst (A), 3rd Görg Höring (A), 9th Nicholas Gerriner (AA-6), and fourteen other members of the Lutheran Congregation.

This Record Book, along with other discarded books, including a pulpit Bible, and an accumulation of out-dated Sunday School material, found stored in the chancel closet when the second church was being razed for the construction of the present one in 1923, were all and sundry removed to a dump and ABANDONED to the elements. Because of the attraction that pictures and books hold for children, some of these things were salvaged and found their way into private homes, among which was this Record Book, which was not publicly known to exist when in 1951 your compiler rediscovered it. We made translated copies of the record in 1952, and later had the original microfilmed by the Historical Society of Berks County in Reading, in the public interest.

THE PAROCHIAL SCHOOL predated the church, however, the only record concerning its beginnings is the memorial writing and address of Johann Frederick Obenhausen (AA-1-1), the Lutheran pastor, in connection with the dedication of the newly erected second SCHOOLHOUSE, on October 30, 1796. He states that the people having been desirous of preserving the Christian doctrine, as they had learned it in Germany, unto their children and descendants after them; and as the foundation for their religion was laid in the school, they accordingly resolved to establish a German Lutheran school. He said that George Kamp, et al., had on October 17, 1753, purchased a tract of land, that the building thereon was enlarged by an addition thereto, which served many years as a schoolhouse until it became inadequate, and was replaced by the building then being dedicated.

He prescribed further that THE SCHOOLMASTER be bound to teach Reading, Writing and Arithmetic to all the children alike, and to teach them in their own Catechisms and Bibles as their parents might desire it, including those of other denominations; that he be no respecter of person, and be a truly religious and virtuous man.

Many years later this school was superseded by Public School #2 of the township.

GERMAN PENNSYLVANIANS

In 1747 Governor Thomas estimated that there were 120,000 German people in the Province, comprising about 3/5th of a total population of about 200,000. In 1752 another estimate was 90,000 Germans out of a total population of 190,000. By 1775 the estimates were increased to 180,000 Germans, so-called, of a total population of 300,000. It should be remembered however, that what the Provincial authorities called German, included Germans of different cultures, and Swiss, Huguenots, Dutch, and former English speaking elements absorbed by them.

Therein lies the making of a culture peculiar to Pennsylvanians, wherever they may be found, defying all description, but decidedly unlike the overemphasized portrayal of certain sects, commonly given publicity because different, but representing a very small minority of the population, past or present, and not at all typical or representative of Pennsylvania life and culture in the main.

In their Rhenish homeland it had been custom for farmer and artisan to live together in rural villages. In the virgin lands of Pennsylvania however, the industrious pioneer built his own separate domain, making a woodland cabin and garden grow into a bounteous and delightful plantation, equipped with the tools of many trades, while his family multiplied.

NATURALIZATION: In the "Publications of the Huguenot Society of London," published 1921, Volume 24, page 109, of Naturalizations before the Supreme Court of the Province of Pennsylvania held at Philadelphia, are included the names of GEORGE and JOHN HAERING (AA and AB) of Greenwich Township, Berks County; Sacraments taken on Sept. 28, 1765, pursuant to Statute 13, George II, c.7, "An Act for naturalizing such foreign Protestants as are settled in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America."

Requirements to qualify included seven years prior residence, a Certificate of having taken the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper within three months before, the taking of the prescribed Oaths and Declaration, having two witnesses, a fee of two shillings, and personal appearance before the Judges of the said Court in Philadelphia.

To each person thereupon admitted to be his Majesty's natural born Subject of the Kingdom of Great Britain, in testimony whereof there was issued A CERTIFICATE of Naturalization, signed and sealed by Edward Shippen, Jr., Prothonotary of said Court. An example of such certificate, dated October 18, 1765, has recently been acquired by the Lehigh County Historical Society, Allentown, Pa.

It should be noted here that John George Herring, the father of George and John, did not appear at this time as the oaths he took on immigration, August 21, 1750, apparently sufficed for his lifetime. His two sons, however, were foreign born and entered the Colony as minors, without the rights of natural born subjects of Great Britain, particularly the right to own land and pass valid title thereto.

A saving Act of the Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania in 1759 validated titles of persons who had previously died unnaturalized, but this was without benefit to those living as of that date. In consequence, invalid titles would escheat to the Province at the death of the owner. This matter was brought to the attention of the people in a lengthy article in a popular German ALMANAC in Pennsylvania for 1760, and subsequently in weekly newspapers, resulting in an acceleration of naturalizations.

Of the 6,412 naturalizations under the Act of 1740 from that date to 1772, 2,658, or over 41%, were effected from September 24th to October 26th, 1765, the period in which the Herrings took the oaths. Others of their area appearing during or near that period were George Kamp (AA-4), Christian Unger, Andreas Baily (AA-1-7-2-3), George Michael and Godfrey Stern, Jacob and George Michael Leiby (AA-1-7-2), Matthias Ramer, J. Adam Dell, Peter Steigerwalt, all of Greenwich Township; Nicholas and Sebastian Geringer (AA-6), and Leonard Saul of Weisenberg Township; Jacob Lantz and Andreas Werner of Albany Township; et al.

Duplicate copies of these naturalization lists were sent to the Secretary of the Lords of Trade in London by the Secretary of the Council of the Province in Philadelphia, and now are our only source of information, as the originals in the Province have been lost or destroyed.

During the AMERICAN REVOLUTION there were Tories extant in the former Colonies, however, it has been estimated that nine out of ten German Pennsylvanians supported the long struggle for Independence in one capacity or another. It has further been estimated that while they constituted only 1/12th of the total population of the thirteen Colonies, they formed 1/3th of the Patriot Army, undoubtedly one of the decisive factors in the War.

In THE DIALECT, the German Pennsylvanians called themselves 'Pennsylvania Deutsch,' and taking phonetic license translated it 'PENN-SYLVANIA DUTCH.' Basically the dialect is ALEMANNIAN, which was probably the earliest and broadest division in the Germanic group of spoken languages. Modified by modern German before introduction into Pennsylvania, the dialect became further varied through the convenient and natural infusion of English names of many commonplace things, particularly of things not known or used in the old country, or coming into use here from time to time. Also, a few French names occur in the dialect, like 'bateau,' 'pureé,' and 'bodreas(el)' from 'perdrix' for quail.

In our time, some of the would-be scholars with their dictionaries, have been and still are doing the 'Dutch' a disservice in their dialect writings for publication, by attempting to invalidate and undo the centuries-old process of assimilating English words into the dialect, and inventing ambiguities never known to it in fact. Nevertheless, the demise of the dialect is not yet.

Title XII

LOST CAUSES

GERMAN SCHOOLS: For a hundred years rural southeastern and central Pennsylvania churches and their parochial schools were conducted in the German language, not the dialect, but modern. The popular weekly newspapers in the early and middle 1800's were also published in the German language. Then came the state public school law and ENGLISH. Instruction up to this time had only partially become bilingual. The parents individually had provided the books of their choosing, and the schoolmaster taught the children accordingly. The people were fearful for the mother tongue and for the most part opposed Anglification. Consternation was in the land.

Concerning our particular district, we quote the weekly KUTZTOWN "Neutralist" of February 10, 1836, page 2: "Meeting against School Law. — On December 31st last, the citizens of GREENWICH Township, Berks County, assembled at the Public House of Noah Seip, to discuss the objectionable school law." Resolutions to the Legislature were adopted. The leading citizens signed them, headed by Colonel Daniel B. Grim of Grimsville, and among others of course, George Hering (AA-1-7) signed. It was a losing issue but it lived for a generation. Incidentally, French Canada never did give up its language.

We might recall here the controversial claim that the German language missed becoming the OFFICIAL LANGUAGE of the United States by one vote. In any case, anti-English feeling during and following the Revolution is understandable; and Pennsylvania, the most populous of the thirteen original states, with its large German element, plus large segments of New York, Virginia, Carolina and Georgia likewise, made German the second largest national origin constituency then extant in America.

Today, if and when a second language can be taken up in school, it should be chosen first on the basis of occupational opportunity, if any, and second on ethnic background.

PENN COUNTY: Around the middle of the last century many a Pennsylvania town had ambitions to be a county seat. One such endeavor is reported in the weekly KUTZTOWN "Geist der Zeit" (Spirit of the Times) of February 6, 1849, page 3: "Steps for the Erection of Penn County, -- On Saturday the 3rd instant the citizens of GREENWICH Township held an exceedingly large meeting at the Public House of Colonel Daniel B. Grim of Grimsville and organized a Committee for bringing the proposal to consumation." The so-called committee was a long list of citizens including George Hering (AA-1-7), his son George, Junior, his brother-in-law Peter Bennighoff (AA-1-3), et al.

One time Kutztown had almost succeeded; on Legislative Bill of March 2, 1838, the vote was 39 aye and 39 nay. Pottstown, Hamburg and Bernville all tried. Fortunate for old Berks, the rivals lost out.

THE HERRING MEMORIAL

In 1955 we erected in the New Bethel Zion Church Cemetery near Krumsville in Greenwich Township, Berks County, a family memorial to Görg and Marcretha (Unangst) Hörung, immigrants and included thereon a tribute to the four co-founders of the local Church, two of whom were Görg Hörung I and Andreas Unangst, respective fathers of the aforementioned. On the reverse side are inscribed the names of their six children, with husbands and wives and available dates.

The exact location of the graves of George and Margaret Herring, as well as almost all other graves of the time, is unknown. The memorial has been placed within the oldest part of the cemetery, but near and in line with the original markers, in the next oldest part, for a daughter and son-in-law, Jacob and Maria Magdalena (Höring) Arnold (AA-2).

Seven rows above the Arnold markers are also the original markers for another daughter and son-in-law, Johannes and Maria (Höring) Gehringer (AA-6). One row lower and to the left of the Gehringer markers and directly above the Herring memorial in the older part, is the granite memorial to John's father, NICHOLAS GEHRINGER, 1729-1806, also a Huguenot exile.

The Herring memorial is a 4'10" x 19¾" x 9" granite die, on a 6' x 14" x 19" granite base; total weight 3,100 pounds; inscription, 624 letters and digits.

At the outset of the research, besides your compiler's own concern, there appeared to be two basic objectives in the common interest, namely, a family genealogy and a memorial to the immigrant ancestor. The latter was by far the least time consuming, so it was disposed of first, but in a sense too soon.

At that time it had not yet been apparent that the subject Görg Höring II (AA) had immigrated as a minor under sixteen, with his father of the same name. The inscription has since been extended to compensate as well as possible. The Görg Höring referred to thereon as cofounder of the church, was in fact the senior immigrant, and the generation on the reverse side, designated '2nd,' were in fact the third generation present in the Province. The old custom of naming son after father may be commendable as a matter of family pride, but it is not appreciated by the working genealogist.

FINDING YOUR LINEAGE

If you are listed in the index in the back of the book, turn to the Family Number indicated, to find your name and family. The hyphenated number heading your family is your lineage or family number. Families are listed numerically in this book. Drop the right-hand digit or generation number from your family number for the generation next before, and repeat the process through the generations to your senior immigrant ancestor. Likewise, with your family number you can follow your lineage through from left to right. Parenthetical family numbers following names in the context are REFERENCES for follow-up in this book.

The FAMILY NUMBERS in this book are a retention of the file numbers of the data on which it is based. They are the natural result of numbering children in each family in the order of birth, and then hyphenating the individual numbers into a line of generations in the order of descent, and listing the resulting numbers numerically. We have used capital letters without hyphens for the two immigrant generations, and digits with hyphens for the native born. Having a number of LARGE FAMILIES, (up to 18 children, AA-3-3-4-3-3-4), we chose to hyphenate the generation numbers, in preference to the alternative of substituting ambiguous code-letters above the 9th digit. Concerning large families, without them there would have been no Benjamin Franklin, the 15th of 17 children.

In this compilation full names are presented throughout, with exceptions, such as persons having had no middle name by baptism, and who for practical reasons desired a MIDDLE INITIAL, usually taking the initial letter of their mother's maiden surname. This is an old custom but does not make a middle-name per se.

FAMILY A

THE IMMIGRANTS

JOHONN GÖRG HÖRING I (John George Herring), born about 1710 in LORRAINE, France; immigrated Aug. 24, 1750 at Philadelphia, ship 'Brothers'; died after 1778 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., Pa. Issue:

- A. (Johann) Georg Hering II, c1735-c1805, m. Marcretha Unangst, (AA).
- B. Johannes Hering, c1740-1778, m. Eva Maria Unangst, (AB).

ANDREAS UNANGST, born Oct. 7, 1713 in Bödighheim, District Buchen, BADEN, Germany; son of Georg and Elisabetha (Bannmann) Unangst; immigrated Sept. 19, 1719 at Philadelphia, ship 'Patience'; died in 1783 in Greenwich Twp., married May 21, 1737 in Bödighheim.

MARIA KATHARINA BRUNN, b. Dec. 3, 1711 in Bödighheim, d. 1788 in Greenwich Twp., dau. of Georg Heinrich and Anna Maria (Klebus) Brunn. Issue:

1. Friederich Unangst, 1738-1738.
2. Mathias Unangst, 1739-1741.
3. Eva Maria Unangst, 1742 m. Johannes Hering, (AB).
4. Marcretha Unangst, 1745, m. Johann Georg Hering II, (AA).
5. Georg Heinrich Unangst, 1748, d. before his father, without issue.

Our two founding families, arriving in Pennsylvania within a short time of each other, appear to have been in close association from the beginning, and in 1760 became united in fact, through the inter-marriage of the Herring sons with the Unangst daughters, the only heirs, each of the two couples bearing six Pennsylvania born grandchildren in the lifetime of the senior immigrants, to their undoubted joy.

THE UNANGSTS IN EUROPE, 1360-1749

Andreas Unangst, a farmer in Bödighheim, at age 35 emigrated with his family from the land of his forefathers, where for four centuries they had been citizens of the towns of Götszingen, Sindelsheim and Bödighheim, all in the District Buchen of the Grand Duchy of BADEN, east of the Neckar River, a tributary on the east side of the Rhine in Europe.

LINEAGE:

- IV. Sebastian Unangst, 1653-1719, associate judge in Bödighheim; m. 1673, Kunigunde LINDENMUTH, 1654-1724: Issue: 1. Infant son, d., 2. Johann Andreas, 3. Michael, 4. Franz, 5. Anna Barbara, 6. Barbara, 7. GEORG (below), 8. Dorothea, 9. Andreas, 10. Margarethe, 11. Anna Maria, 12. Sebastian, and 13. Johann Lienhard (Leonard).
- V. Georg Unangst, 1683-1754, farmer in Bödighheim; m. 1711, Elisabetha BAUMANN, 1690-1737. Issue: 1. Margarethe, 2. ANDREAS, 1713-1783 (above), 3. Magdalena, and 4. Female, stillborn.

THE UNANGSTS IN PENNSYLVANIA

On Dec. 4, 1749, only 2½ months after his arrival at Philadelphia, Andrew Unangst was granted a Warrant to take up 100 acres of land adjoining the land of Nicholas Remer in Allemangel in the County of Philadelphia, now in northeastern Greenwich Township in Berks County. His survey came to 126 acres, 36 perches and allowance, and encompassed the length of a feeder stream of a branch of Mill Creek, at the head of which is the SPRING by which he chose to settle.

The farmstead by the spring, and a part of the original Unangst tract, are presently (1962) owned by Lawrence K. Kunkle and occupied by his son Kenneth K. Kunkle, Kutztown R. 2, Pa. On the map in the 1876 Atlas of Berks County, the occupant was B. Bennicoll.

The original tract, now touching on old macadam Route 22 at about 1½ miles east of Krumsville, extends north from that road to the top of the next hill, and an unimproved road from old 22 leads to the Kunkle place and continues down along the spring stream to an improved road leading back to old 22. The tract originally extended east to the hillside beyond the confluence of the spring stream with a branch of Mill Creek. Upon Unangst's decease, title to this tract and an adjoining tract on a Warrant of May 27, 1772, for 50 acres south of the original tract, passed to the Herrings.

THE SPRINGHOUSE

The only original structure remaining today is a 2½ story stone springhouse, date unknown but apparently built during Andrew Unangst's time. The one room 2nd floor with fireplace and the loft served as a dwelling, one of two dwellings shown on county maps as late as 1876. The interior is presently used for storage only. The ground floor is partly below grade and the spring flows through a cooling trough across the far end, no longer in use. There is evidence that at one time the spring was walled in and accessible at the outside of the main wall. The spring now feeds a cattle watering and fire pond, and has not failed in the memory of anyone now living.

Springhouse dimensions: 19' 6" \times 20' 4", outside measure; wall 20"; fireplace 5' 2" \times 3' 4", in corner. Second floor, three steps up; ground floor, four steps down; steps outside.

WAY OF LIFE

When Andrew Unangst died in 1783, Letters of Administration were granted to the widow, Katharina Unangst (Berks Co. O.C. Vol. 3, p.354). Then in 1788 when she died, Letters were granted to George Herring, Junior, grandson; George Herring, Senior and wife Margaret having renounced (Vol. 4. p.126).

The inventory of his Personal Property, taken on Nov. 22, 1783, gives us a concept of his way of life. It includes Books of different kinds, appraised at 15 shillings; 1 big Spinning Wheel and Loom, 3s., 50 bu. Buckwheat £7 10s.; 3 Spinning Wheels £1; Wagon and Wagon Cover £12 10s.; Grain in the barn £12; Grain in the ground £9; 5 Horses £35; 4 Cows £11; 9 Sheep £3; 1 Hogs £1 10s.; 2 pr. HobblerSmith Tools and 5 Cow Chains £4 4s.; and other items; total appraisement of £124 14s. 6d.

The item of five horses indicates a large operation in his time. Many carried on with only one, plus an occasional borrowed horse. The quantity of grain indicates considerable land under cultivation. Clearing virgin timberland was a slow and hard process. His possession of books denotes that when he immigrated, his baggage included more than absolute necessities.

THE HERRINGS ARRIVE

We recognize John George Herring I by the handwriting of his signatures. On arrival at Philadelphia on Aug. 24, 1750, he signed the ship list, 'Johonn Görg Höring,' as photocopied on page 505 of volume 2 of "Pennsylvania German Pioneers," by Strassburger. The next known signature of his is 'Görg Höring,' on July 24, 1763, in the record book of New Bethel Zion Church in Greenwich Township, Berks County, of which we have photocopies on file. The shortening of personal names in this manner was customary here. The handwriting is unmistakable. In 1761 he still signed 'Görg Höring,' however, in 1767 and after he signed 'Gerg Hering.'

We know nothing positive about his wife, however, it is highly improbable that a man of 40 with motherless children would have emigrated at all. The probability is that he did in fact emigrate with wife and four or five children, losing his wife and younger children either as casualties of the voyage or the frontier, all before 1761. After 1761 they would no doubt have been accounted for in the church record, as were the other members of the family.

THE HERRING LAND

We have a photocopy of a specially prepared land draft consolidating six adjoining warrant surveys and vicinity, in detail, with compass lines and measurements, acreage, original warrant names and dates, names of owners at the time of the draft, and boundary owners; all in Greenwich Township, Berks County. This draft apparently prepared in the Land Office in Philadelphia is undated, however it includes a 1771 warrant of Jonas Apple and shows Andrew Unangst, 1713-1783, as a living owner, thus reflecting titles as of the 1770s.

We also have photocopies of some of the individual original warrant surveys, however the consolidated draft exhibits more and later information, and appears to have been made in the interest of (John) George Herring I, who is the first of six owners listed in the notes.

Shown in this draft, to the north of and adjoining the aforementioned Unangst tract, is the so-called 'Nicholas Remer, now George Herring' tract of 103 acres, 123 perches and allowance. Nicholas Remer (originally 'Römer,' now 'Ramer'), had immigrated in 1732 at the age of 30, and took up a 100 acre Warrant on Oct. 28, 1746 for this tract, which was surveyed to him on Sept. 17, 1750.

Since George Herring I did not take out the initial land warrant, we have no evidence of exactly when he came to Allemangel (Greenwich), however the date of this survey, Sept. 17, 1750, suggests that that may have been the approximate time of transfer of title from Remer to Herring. George Herring I paid Provincial Tax on his land in 1754, 1756, 1758 and 1760.

The Remer-Herring tract, on the north of the Unangst tract, had its eastern line cross a branch of Mill Creek below a fork in the branch, and encompassed lands on each side of and part way up both the west and northwest forks. Remer's clearing appears to have been on the west fork at or near the farmstead presently owned and occupied by Thomas F. Lutz. On the map in the 1876 Atlas of Berks County the occupant was J. Gruber. The Lutz place is on a macadam road north of old Route 22 with which it connects at about $1\frac{1}{4}$ miles to the east, and likewise at Krumsville about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles to the west. Beginning with 1762, George Herring I's two sons became the taxpayers and apparent owners. In 1765 son George's assessment included 30 acres of cleared land, and son John's 25 acres cleared, all part of this tract.

On April 22, 1767 George Herring I signed an Application for 150 acres of land adjoining the Remer-Herring land, and lands of Jacob Lantz, Adam Dell and George Kamp. This extended to the northwest of his original land and was surveyed to him as 130 acres, 125 perches and allowance. We do not know the purpose or use he made of this additional tract.

RESTING PLACE

The date of death of (John) George Herring I is unknown. His last known official act was his signing, as an Elder, among others, an Agreement dated Dec. 5, 1778, spread upon the Church Record Book, whereby the Lutheran Congregation shared the use of the Church with the smaller membership of the Reformed faith in the community.

Being in his late 60's then, he probably died at about the close of the Revolutionary War. The Herring and Unangst first families would naturally be buried in the grounds of the church they helped found, among the several hundred graves now unmarked.

FAMILY AA

(JOHANN) GEORG HERING II (George Herring), born about 1735 in Europe, died after 1805 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., son of Johann Görg HÖRING; immigrated with his father's family, Aug. 21, 1750 at Philadelphia, ship 'Brothers;' married c1760 in Greenwich Twp.,

MARCRETHA UNANGST, born May 30, 1745 in Bödighelm, Baden, Germany, died after 1805 in Greenwich Twp., daughter of Andreas and Maria (Brunn) Unangst; immigrated with father's family, Sept. 19, 1749 at Philadelphia, ship 'Patience.' Issue:

1. (Johann) Georg Hering III, 1761-1811, (AA-1),
2. M. Magdalena Hering Arnold, 1763-1808, (AA-2),
3. Johannes Hering, 1765-c1835, (AA-3),
4. Catharine E. Hering Kamp, 1767, (AA-4),
5. Andreas Hering, born June 1770, living 1805, n/f/r
6. Maria Hering Gehringel, 1772-1842, (AA-6).

Georg Hering II and his only brother Johannes married the two only daughters of Andreas Unangst, probably in a double ceremony in the year 1760. It appears that thereupon all of their elders' lands were divided between the two brothers. In the 1762 and subsequent county TAX LISTS, the brothers became the taxpayers. George Herring II is recorded in the lists as a WHEELWRIGHT and FARMER, and assessed variously on 80 to 175 acres of land, two to four horses and two to four cattle. Incidental to owning land, it was necessary for him and his brother to take out naturalization papers in Philadelphia, which they did on Sept. 28, 1765 (see Title XI).

His family of six children are all named in the WILL of one of them, Magdalena (Hering) Arnold, (Northampton County Will Bk. 4, p. 314), who died without issue. All have been accounted for but ANDREAS. Andreas' baptism is in the record book of New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich, and he was living and 35 years old when his sister made her Will on Dec. 26, 1805, our last record of him. He apparently died here without issue, as it seems improbable that he would have removed from the state after middle-age.

The exact dates of death of George and Margaret Hering are unknown, however, the last known record of him is Sept. 29, 1805 as DEACON, and of her on Oct. 12, 1805 as a communicant in their church. This was during the administration of Thomas Jefferson, 3rd president of the United States. As to the MEMORIAL erected to this family, see Title XIV.

FAMILY AA-1

(JOHANN) GEORG HERING III (George Herring), b. Oct. 3, 1761 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., d. 1814, same twp., son of Georg and Marcretha (Unangst) Hering; m. Feb. 28, 1783, MARIA MAGDALENA LINDENMUTH, b. Mar. 31, 1761 in Windsor Twp., Berks Co., d. Feb. 3, 1796 in Greenwich Twp., dau. of Colonel J. Michael and Maria Eva (Noecker) Lindennuth. Issue:

1. (Maria) Christina Hering Obenhausen, 1781, (AA-1-1),
2. Johann Georg Hering, b. Dec. 13, 1786, d. before his mother,
3. Magdalena Hering Bennighoff, 1788-1873, (AA-1-3),
4. Catharina Hering, b. Aug. 5, 1790, d. about 1801,
5. Jacob Hering, 1793-1861, (AA-1-5),
6. Johannes Hering, 1796-c1827, (AA-1-6).

m. (2nd),

ELISABETH DeLONG, b. c1775 in Lynn Twp., Northampton (now Lehigh) Co., d. c1809 in Greenwich Twp., dau. of Mathias and Margaret DeLong. Issue:

7. (Johann) Georg Hering, 1800-1888, (AA-1-7),
8. Susanna Catharina Hering Hauser, 1803, (AA-1-8),
9. Benjamin Hering, 1805-1837, (AA-1-9),
10. Daniel Hering, c1806-1861, (AA-1-10).

George Herring III was the first male child of the family to be born in the Province of Pennsylvania, a subject of King George III of England. He was baptized "Johann Georg Höring," the sponsors were Johannes and Eva Maria Höring, his uncle and aunt, recorded in New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich record book.

As a young man, George Herring served in the Militia during the REVOLUTIONARY WAR and was called into Federal service for two short tours in 1781. On May 9, 1781, one class of Colonel Michael Lindenmuth's Battalion of Militia of Berks County, 60 men, was ordered out for the purpose of defending the frontiers of the County, Brunswick and Pine Grove Townships. (Berks County in the Revolution, M. L. Montgomery, 1891, p. 138). George Herring was in this call. SERVICE RECORD as follows:

"Pennsylvania Archives, 5th Series, Volume 5; page 277, Payroll of Capt. Daniel Will's Co. of Berks Co. Militia; Windsor Twp. over the Blue Mountain, 1781; George Herring, Private; entry May 28, discharge July 31, service 2 mo. 3 da., page 280, Payroll of Capt. Jacob Ladich's Co. of Berks Co. Militia; George Herring, Private; entry Oct. 1, 1781, discharge Oct. 17, 1781, service 17 days."

George Herring III was a farmer, blacksmith, wainwright and weaver. When he began raising a family he appears to have acquired all of his father's LAND, as in 1784 he was assessed on 160 acres, 3 horses, 3 cattle and 4 sheep for county tax. COLONEL MICHAEL LINDENMUTH (1737-1785), his father-in-law, a native of Bödighheim in Baden, the birthplace of his Umangst mother, immigrated at Philadelphia on Sept. 22, 1752, settled in Windsor Township and raised 15 children. Another of the Colonel's daughters married Capt. Jacob Ladig of Greenwich Township, under whom George Herring also served. In the LINDENMUTH FAMILY JOURNAL, (published 1939, p. 20) the Colonel made the following entry: "On Feb. 3, 1796 my daughter Maria Magdalena died. We buried her on the 5th. May God give her rest and a happy resurrection at the last day, and us all. Amen. Her age was 31 years, 10 months. She was married to George Hering 12 years, 11 months, 3 days. In that time she gave birth to six children, three boys and three girls. One of the little boys went into eternity before his mother. May the Lord give us all His eternal peace and blessing. Amen."

DeLONG: A petition of Nov. 27, 1809 in Northampton County (O.C. Bk. 8, p. 653) reads: "Mathias DeLong of Lynn Township died 21 year ago leaving a widow and 10 children, — that the widow died recently — that one of the children, Elisabeth, inter-married with George Herring, died leaving four children living at this time."

DeLONG: A petition of Aug. 8, 1812 in Berks County (O.C. Bk. 5 p. 144) reads: "George Herring, — inter-married with Elisabeth, a daughter of Mathias DeLong, deceased, that the said Elisabeth left issue four children, George, Catharine, Benjamin and Daniel, minors under 14, entitled to a portion of their said grandfather's estate."

WAY OF LIFE: Letters of Administration granted June 4, 1814 in Berks County (O.C. Bk. 7, p. 335) reads: "John George Herring lately died intestate." The Inventory of his Personal Property, appraised June 2, 1814, on file in Reading, illustrates his way of life. It includes: 1 Man's Saddle and 1 Woman's Saddle, 3 pounds 17 shillings 6 pence; Books 6s. 6d., Book and Weaver Tools, £1 18s. 6d., 1 Weaver's Loom, 15s., Anvil Bellows, Dies, Hammers, Iron, £5 1s. 3d., 7 Sheep, £3 18s. 9d., 7 Head of Cattle, £25 18s. 9d., 6 Hogs, 1 Geese, £6 6s. 3d., 1 Silver Watch, £2

8s 9d., 1 set Wagoner's Tools, £2 11s. d., and other articles. Total £193 12s. 3d.

LATELY DIED: A petition of Aug. 5, 1814 in Berks County O.C. Bk. 4 #2, p. 102) reads: "George Herring of Greenwich Township, deceased, lately died intestate leaving eight children: Jacob, Christina, wife of Frederick Obenhausen, Magdalena, wife of Peter Bennighoff, John, George, Catharine, Benjamin and Daniel, — land in Greenwich Township, 160 acres." This was the original UNANGST TRACT.

The exact day and month of his decease are not recorded. Undoubtedly buried at New Bethel Zion Church, his grave is one of hundreds now unmarked. This was during the administration of James Madison, 4th president of the United States.

THE DeLONG LINE:

1. Abraham DeLang (DeLong) died in 1756 in Lynn Twp., (now) Lehigh Co., ½ mile from Jacob's Church, on a 200 acre tract where he had settled, probably in 1738, when Peter DeLong, apparently a brother, migrated from Ulster Co., N.Y., and settled in Maxatawny Twp., (now) Berks Co., Pa., both born about 1700. His wife Catharine died in 1765. Had 9 children, namely: 1. Peter, 2. MATHIAS, 3. Abraham, Jr., 4. Lucas, 5. Edward, 6. Mathelena, m. Henrich Bretheich, 7. Hanna, m. Michael Englert, 8. Catharina, m. Andres Straub, and 9. Rachel, unmarried.
11. Mathias DeLong, carpenter and farmer, died in 1785 in Lynn Twp. on a 117 acre tract, is buried at Jacob's Church. His wife Margaretta died in 1809. Had 9 children, including Joseph; J. Jacob; J. George; Catharine, m. Nicholas Fisher (r. Hanburg, Pa., 1815); Elisabeth, m. GEORGE HERRING (1761-1814); and Christina, m. Charles Wagner (r. Tyrone Twp., Cumberland Co., Pa., 1812, now in Perry County).

(MARIA) CHRISTINA HERING, b. Oct. 10, 1784 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., dau. Georg and Maria Magdalena (Lindenmuth) Hering; m. May 13, 1806 by the groom's father, FREDERICK OBENHAUSEN, b. c1780, d. c1827, son of Rev. Johann Frederick and Agatha Obenhausen. Issue (documentation incomplete):

1. J. Georg Obenhausen, c1807-c1832, m. 7-1-1827 Sarah Kutz, 1805-1885, she is bd. Hope Cem., Kutztown, Pa., T/s.
2. Female, b. c1809, (1810 and 1820 U.S. census).
3. Female, b. c1811, (1820 census).
1. W. Frederick Obenhausen, organ and piano builder in Pottstown, Pa., b. c1814; wife Margaretta, 1820-1866, bd. N. Charlotte St. Cem., Pottstown, T/s.

The senior (John) Frederick Obenhausen was a native of Holland and middleaged when he arrived in Pennsylvania. He was licensed by the Lutheran Ministerium in convention in Reading, Pa., and delivered his introductory sermon in Greenwich on June 22, 1794. He served this and several other congregations for ten years or more and kept excellent church records, and was fully ordained by the Ministerium in 1804 in Easton, Pa. He resided in Weisenberg Township, (now) Lehigh County, until after the U.S. census of 1800. Shortly after 1806, when he officiated at the wedding of his son to Christina Hering here, he removed to New Germantown, Toboyne Township, Perry County. He again served as a Lutheran pastor, and is also credited with having been a practicing physician in New Germantown. He died there on Apr. 12, 1821 at the age of 74, but we were unable to find any grave marker there, or at nearby Blain, in the Fall of 1961. (Hist. Susq. & Juniata Valleys, 1886, V. 2, pp. 925, 990; Hist. Perry Co., 1922, Hain, p. 1066; 200th Anniv. Heidelberg Ch., Lehigh Co., 1910, p. 27; U.S. Census, 1820).

The Rev. Dr. Wm. A. Hellrich (b. 1827) writes that Rev. Obenhausen was also an ORGAN BUILDER, and erected the first organ for Ziegel Church in Lehigh County, (Hist. Lehigh & Carbon Counties, 1881, Mathews, p. 466). The senior Obenhausen appears to have learned this trade in Holland, passing it on to his son of the same name here. THE JUNIOR OBENHAUSEN appears in the census and tax lists in Greenwich Township from 1808 through 1811, in Reading from 1815 through 1818, in Maxatawny Township in 1820, and in Kutztown from 1822 through 1827, where he apparently died at the age of about 47.

In the weekly, "Der Standhafte (The Steadfast) Patriot," Reading, Pa., Mar. 8, 1815, he advertises as "Musical Instrument Maker in the City of Reading; Organs of every kind, Piano-fortes," etc., 19 lines. In the weekly "Berks & Schuylkill Journal," Reading, July 27, 1816, his advertisement reads in part: "Organ and Piano-forte Maker, Continues carrying on the business in all its various branches. Every description of Organ, from those used in places of public worship down to hand organs, made in a masterly style and warranted. Pianos of every description made in the handsomest and most approved manner," etc.

We have a photocopy of an accounting for the organ installed in Zion Reformed (Red) Church near Orwigsburg, Schuylkill County, begun in 1816, total amount $632.86, final payment with interest, Jan. 1, 1825. The records of St. John's Reformed Church, Sinking Spring, Berks County, show that a large pipe organ installed in 1817 was also built by him. This enterprise of extraordinary skill proved unprofitable however, as he is on record twice, in 1816 and again in 1821, to have applied to the Court of Common Pleas for the benefit of the Insolvent Debtor's law. Frederick and Christina (Hering) Obenhausen were apparently buried in Kutztown, without benefit of markers.

9. Jacob Hering, b. Apr. 6, 1833, d. May 1, 1856, bd. as above, T/s.

Jacob Hering, farmer and carpenter, was born at the beginning of George Washington's 2nd term as president. Upon his father's decease, being the oldest and only son to have attained the age of 21, he appeared in Court on Apr. 7, 1815 and accepted his father's land at the appraised value, (Berks Co. O.C. Bk. 4#2, p. 103). On June 15, 1815 he gave Michael Croll, local business man, a mortgage in order to pay the other heirs their 1/8th shares each. However, on Jan. 10, 1816 this mortgage was satisfied with the payment of £1,059 15s and interest, (Berks Co. Mtg. Bk. K, p. 160). He was the last of the Herrings to own and occupy the original farmstead in Greenwich Township of his great-grandfather Andrew Unangst, immigrant in 1749.

The foregoing transaction of 1816 apparently marks the time that Jacob Hering and his family removed to West Penn Township, Schuylkill County, where he was enumerated in the 1820 U.S. census, in the part which was formed into Rahn Township in 1860. Quoting the History of the Counties of Lehigh and Carbon, 1884, Mathews, p. 793: "Summit Hill, — The Lutheran Church was organized in the old schoolhouse about 1853. The members of the CHURCH COUNCIL were Jacob Moser (1790-1883, AA-1-5-7), JACOB HERRING, (Daniel) Burkhart Moser (c1800, AA-1-5-7), Abraham Miller (AA-3-8-5), and Rev. Oberfeld, the pastor."

Daniel Herring was stationary engineer at #8 Breaker in that part of West Penn from which Rahn Township was formed in 1860, now in Coaldale; except from 1856 to 1859, when he was a sawyer in Rush Township, all in Schuylkill County. Quoting "125th Anniversary of Coaldale," published 1952, pp. 28, 29: "In 1867 Daniel Herring invited a group of worshippers to his home at a spot now covered by #10 refuse bank, — then in 1869 in his new home at northeast corner of 3rd and Philip Streets. That was the beginning of the Evangelical Church here. (He was an) original TRUSTEE."

Lucy Ann Herring of Coaldale was suddenly taken ill on Railroad Street in Tamaqua while returning from a visit to her brother (George Welsh, 1822-1899) in Hometown. She was taken to the home of John Horn on East Broad Street where she died within 30 minutes, (Tamaqua Courier, Dec. 10, 1887).

1. Paul Cartwright, b. Dec. 2, 1898 in Catasauqua, Lehigh Co.

Grant Cartwright was enumerated in the 1880 U.S. census with his father's family of nine in Frankstown Township, Blair County. His mother died Dec. 7, 1899 in Frankstown, age 67, buried in Geeseytown Cemetery, Hollidaysburg R. 2, Pa. When married in 1889, Grant was employed in Pottstown, Montgomery County. Ten years later, Earl, about the 4th child, was born in Catasauqua and baptized in Coaldale, Sch. Co. The family then removed to Altoona or vicinity, where Clara died young shortly after. To our regret, we have been unable to complete the record.

THE MOSER LINE:

I. and II. Daniel Moser's grandfather BURKHART (1749-1828), immigrated with his parents, Hans Michael and Catharina Moser, at Philadelphia, Oct. 16, 1751, ship 'Duke of Wurtemberg,' who settled in Lynn Township, (now) Lehigh County. Burkhardt Moser served in Washington's army, married Catharina Kershner, and in 1799 removed with his brother-in-law, John Kershner and family, to a land claim now on East Broad Street in Tamaqua, built a sawmill and log house, the first improvements in the area, and cleared a farm. In 1817, while excavating for another building on his tract, he discovered the FIRST COAL in the area, which he started to prepare and haul to market, and in 1828 on his last trip he mysteriously disappeared. JOHANNES HERING (John Hering), b. 1796 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., d. c1827 in Maxatawny Twp., Berks Co., grave unknown; son of Georg and Maria Magdalena (Lindenmuth) Hering; m., ANNA (m.n. unknown), b. 1796 in Longswamp Twp., Berks Co., re-m. John Seiter; d. Apr. 21, 1889 in Reading, Pa., bd. Alsace Cem., Reading. T/s. Issue:

1. Judith Hering Repp, 1819-1898, (AA-1-6-1).
2. Nathan Hering, 1821-1872, (AA-1-6-2).
3. David Herring, 1823-1862, (AA-1-6-3).
4. Catharine Hering Rader, 1825-1901, (AA-1-6-4).

Born during George Washington's 2nd term as president, the baptism of Johannes Herring on June 26, 1796 is recorded in the New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich record book, naming the sponsors, Andreas and Maria Sophia Kamp; however, the exact date of birth and the names of the parents were not filled in. The child appears to have been brought to baptism by the sponsors alone.

He undoubtedly was born to George and Maria M. (Lindenmuth) Hering, the mother having died on February 3rd of that year, probably in consequence of his birth. The child was raised apparently from infancy to adulthood by the sponsors. The two families were neighbors, occupying adjoining tracts of land. Later, when George Hering's 2nd wife died in 1815, the same Andreas Kamp was appointed guardian of three other minor children of George Hering's, namely Catharine, Benjamin and Daniel. Still later, when the subject John Hering's 2nd child Nathan was baptized in 1821, the sponsors again were the same Andreas and Maria Sophia (Kohler) Kamp.

As a young man, John Hering served in the WAR OF 1812-1814, in the Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry of the Line. (Pa. Archives, Vol. 7, p. 121.) The last known record of him is in the baptism of his last child, Catharine, by Rev. Chas. G. Herman, Mar. 5, 1826. He probably died shortly after, date of decease and place of burial unknown.

Records of ANNA HERING are also incomplete. According to her obituary in the "Reading Eagle," she, then Anna Sedar, died at the residence of her daughter Catharine (Hering) Rader, in her 93rd year, and a native of Longswamp Township. Her parentage is unaccounted for. In the 1830 U.S. census she was a widow in Maxatawny Township apparently in the vicinity of Kutztown. By 1850 she had probably removed to Reading where in the First Reformed Church record is recorded the baptism of a grandchild of hers, a son of David Herring, in which the sponsors were John and herself, Anna Sedar. The Sedars appear in the 1860 U.S. census of Reading. The name is spelled 'Cedar' on her grave marker, which is on the Rader lot.

6. John Andrew Haring, b. Aug. 16, 1865 in Reading, d. Mar. 13, 1867 in Reading, bd. old Garber Cem. (above). T/s.

Nathan Haring was born during the administration of James Monroe, 5th president of the United States, his baptism is recorded in the New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich record book. Next he appears on the 1850 assessment list of Pocono Township, Monroe County as a single man, residing with Jacob Stauffer, merchant, in the village of TANNERSVILLE. Incidentally, he was assessed $50 on a WATCH. On Sept. 18, 1850, in the U.S. census, he was enumerated as married and a moulder in the above township. In the 1860 census, same place, he is listed as MASTER MOULDER, with wife Maria and children Emma A., Alvin W. and Amanda E. He was a member of MILITIA in Monroe County.

CIVIL WAR: According to his affidavit made Dec. 11, 1867 before the Prothonotary of Berks County, Nathan Haring was a Private in Co. E, 119th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, enlisted Aug. 22, 1862 for three years, and in line of duty at the BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG, July 1, 1863, he was wounded in the right hand by a ball, which took the ends off two fingers; and taken prisoner by the Rebel enemy; was paroled July 3, 1863 by order of Major General A. P. Hill, C.S.A., and sent home, and has since resided in Monroe and Berks counties; signed, Nathan Haring. The U.S. Adjutant General's Office record is: Enlisted Aug. 11, 1862 at Harrisburg, Co. E, 119th Reg. Pa. Vol. This was known as the BUCKTAIL regiment.

He returned to Monroe County in 1863, but removed to Reading before Nov. 7, 1865, when his two youngest children were baptized in the Methodist Church there. In the 1870 U.S. census he was enumerated in Reading, where he died of SMALLPOX Feb. 22, 1872.

The record of his wife MARIA, is incomplete. According to census records she was born in New York State, however, her parentage is unknown. Her maiden-name, VanLuvvar, is recorded in the adult baptism of her son Alvin, Nov. 16, 1883, in Trinity Lutheran Church, Reading. The first known record of her is in the Reading city directory of 1872-73, as residing at 668 Minor Street. Both are buried in Aulenbach Cemetery, Reading, whose record says in 'Old Piece B,' and a granddaughter says 'along fence, lower end, at left of drive gate.' No markers, at this time.

(JOHANN) GEORG HERING IV, b. May 3, 1800, d. May 20, 1888, bd. New Bethel Zion Ch. Cem., T/s, all in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., son of Georg and Elisabeth (DeLong) Hering; m.,

HANNAH GEORG, b. May 30, 1802, d. July 3, 1829, bd. Dunkel's Ch. Cem., T/s, all in Greenwich Twp., dau. of Jost Heinrich and Elisabeth (Meyer) Görg. Issue:

1. (Johann) Georg Hering V, 1821-1887, (AA-I-7-1).
2. Charles G. Hering, 1823-1886, (AA-I-7-2).
3. Daniel Hering, b. Oct. 15, 1826, d. Sept. 5, 1829, bd. Dunkel's Ch., T/s.

George Herring IV, born during the administration of John Adams, 2nd president of the United States, was baptized 'Johann Georg Hering' in New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich Township, and resided in that township all 88 years of his life; was a MILLER and farmer, militia officer and civil officer. He became motherless at the age of nine and fatherless at fourteen, and had two unrelated guardians before coming of age.

In a petition on Jan. 6, 1815 he made choice of ADAM KLINE as his Guardian, which choice was approved by the Court, (Berks County O.C. Vol. 4#2, p. 117). Adam Kline and wife Magdalena had also stood sponsors at the baptism of Adam Herring (AA-3-8), a cousin, born Oct. 7, 1811. By petition of Aug. 8, 1817 he made choice of JACOB WILL (1771-1846), as Guardian, also approved by the Court, (Berks County O.C. Vol. 5, p. 283). Jacob and Maria Sophia (Schober) Will owned and occupied a tract of land in a valley east of Dunkel's Church, called

'Will Dale,' after that family. Here George Hering met his wife, HANNAH GEORG, daughter of Jost Heinrich Georg whose land adjoined the land of Jacob Will on the east, in the head of the valley.

MILITIA: We have a photocopy of a Commission by Governor Joseph Hiester to George Herring as 2nd Lieutenant of 11th Company of the 1st Regiment of Militia of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the 2nd Brigade of the 6th Division, dated the 2nd of February, 1822. This is also recorded in Militia Book 5, p. 126, in Harrisburg. Peter Kline, Jr. was Colonel and Wm. Hiester, Jr. was Lt. Colonel. In 1835 George Hering was elected LIEUTENANT COLONEL in the above Regiment by a vote of 321 to 121 for his opponent, (Kutztown "Neutralist," June 3, 1835, p. 3).

CIVIL OFFICES: We also have a photocopy of a Commission by Governor Wm. F. Johnson to George Hering to be JUSTICE OF THE PEACE for Greenwich Township for a term of five years, dated the 9th day of April, 1850. George Hering was a CONSTABLE in Greenwich Township in 1835 and 1837. In the Spring of 1851 he was elected TREASURER of the township, and in the Spring of 1860 he was elected CLERK of the township. He was a Lutheran member of CHURCH COUNCIL from time to time. Reported in the weekly Kutztown "Geist der Zeit" (Spirit of the Time) of June 13, 1848, p. 3, the Congregation of New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich Township contributed to "Relief for the Fire in Allentown;" the consistory was George Hering, et al. The great fire had occurred on Ascension Day, June 1st. Much of the business section was destroyed.

COVERLETS: In the weekly "Kutztowner Neutralist" of Apr. 19, 1837, p. 3, he and a younger brother, apparently residing together, had inserted a paid advertisement, as follows: "George and Daniel Hering, ARTISTIC BEDSPREAD WEAVERS, in Greenwich Township, Berks County, on the road from Kutztown to Hamburg, take the liberty to announce to the Public that they have purchased a Patent Bedspread Loom, and can do handsome Weaving for everyone desiring this work done. Also DYEING, in all its various branches is being carried on."

On Apr. 3, 1810, George Hering and Joshua Hinderleider, in PARTNERSHIP, purchased a 50 acre tract of land in Greenwich Township with a two-story dwelling, a Swiss barn, a sawmill, and a two-story mill of four pair of stones, two for custom grinding and two for flour milling. This partnership, however, was dissolved two years later. The weekly "Kutztown Journal" of July 20, 1875, p. 3, reported that George Herring of Greenwich sent them an Early Rose POTATO measuring 17½ inches in circumference lengthwise and 11½ inches at girth, it being one of 10 potatoes on one stalk.

The weekly "Berks and Schuylkill Journal," Reading, Pa., Aug. 16, 1879, p. 3, reports: "Mr. George Herring of Greenwich Township has a COLLECTION OF ALMANACS for every year since 1781. Some are in a dilapidated condition, particularly those of the last century and the early part of the present, but in all of them the reading matter is perfectly legible. The collection is quite an interesting one." We are not told who started the collection, but peculiarly it coincides with the year following his father's first marriage in 1783. No doubt the father began it, the son continuing as long as he lived, to a total of 105 years. Nor do we know what became of it then, but the probability is that someone burned up all but the last, the current issue.

SECOND MARRIAGE: In the 1830 U.S. census George Hering was enumerated as unmarried, with two sons, and apparently under the same roof with his brother Daniel and wife and two children. Then on Aug. 1, 1831 an Indenture of Separation between him and his 2nd wife CATHARINE is recorded in the Berks County Recorder's Office (Misc. Bk. D1, p. 333). Michael Hoffman of Windsor Township was her Trustee. She was probably Catharine FISHER, born Sept. 7, 1802 in Greenwich Township, daughter of Nicholas and Catharine (DeLong) Fisher. There was no issue. (Nicholas Fisher died in 1815 in Hamburg, Pa. Catharine DeLong was a sister of Elisabeth DeLong Hering, AA-1.) N/f/r.

THIRD MARRIAGE: On Apr. 1, 1834 George Hering purchased an 11 acre property east of the aforementioned Will Dale, where he and his brother Daniel resided. Late 1838 Daniel and his family removed to Turbotville, Northumberland County. George Hering re-married, apparently about 1839, as on Apr. 1, 1840 he and MARIA, his 3rd wife, sold this property to Jacob Stein, to enter the aforementioned Hering-Hinderleider partnership. His 3rd wife, MARIA DORNMOYER, was born June 15, 1811 in Maxatawny Township, daughter of David and Regina C. (Arnold) Dornmoyer, died Jan. 28, 1877 in Greenwich Township, and is buried with him in New Bethel Zion Church Cemetery. T/s. No issue.

Concerning his three marriages, your compiler's father remembered hearing his grandfather, George Hering, say that his 1st wife was of God, the 2nd of the devil and the 3rd of man. George Hering was the OLDEST RESIDENT of Greenwich Township when he died, in the dwelling-part of his gristmill, on a 25 acre tract of land on a branch of Mill Creek, two miles southwest of his place of birth, the aforementioned Unangst farmstead, and one mile from both Grimsville and Smithville (Krumsville since July 1885). It was owned and occupied by him from 1845 and is presently a part of the Sylvester Grim Estate. A granddaughter, Sarah, Mrs. Charles B. Kline and family lived with him at the time he died. His obituary states that he outlived three wives and three sons, and had 20 grandchildren and 54 great-grandchildren. The mill has long since been razed for salvage of the building-stone and lumber.

Joshua Leaser, a graduate of (now) Kutztown State College, was a 5th generation descendant of FREDERICK LEASER, pioneer farmer of Lynn Township, (now) Lehigh County, of LIBERTY BELL fame. In September 1777, the Continental Executive Council found it urgently necessary to remove to safety, among other things of military value, the State House Bell in Philadelphia, which they then announced as buried in the Delaware River. Instead however, the Bell was loaded and hidden on the wagon of John Jacob Mickley, farmer from near the town of Northampton, now Allentown, for transportation to and safe keeping in that town. Enroute, according to the diary of the Moravian Congregation at Bethelhem, the wagon bearing the Bell broke down at that place, and thereupon the Bell was transferred to the following wagon of Frederick Leaser, who then completed the famous mission. A bronze tablet to Frederick Leaser, erected in 1928, stands by Highway 143 between Wanamakers and Jacksonville in Lynn Township.

Charles G. Hering, born during the administration of James Monroe, 5th president of the United States, was baptized 'Frederick Carl Hering' in Dunkel's Church in Greenwich Township. He received his first name from Frederick Kapp, his sponsor, but came to be known by his middle name, Carl (German), translated into Charles, and took his middle initial from his mother's maiden-name. In the 1850 U.S. census he was listed as a stone MASON and thereafter as a FARMER. He owned and occupied a 100 acre tract, bisected by the township and county line, on State road, now the former Route 22, and presently known as 'INDIAN SPRING FARM.' The boundary line passing through his house, he slept in Greenwich Township, Berks County, and ate his meals in Weisenberg Township, Lehigh County. Where one sleeps is his domicile and precinct. His two-story house has since been destroyed by fire and replaced by a different type.

In the weekly "Kutztown Journal" of Mar. 12, 1874, p. 2, it is reported that he felled a CHESTNUT TREE on his land measuring 7 feet across the stump, yielding 75 posts and 4 cords of firewood, the rings indicating the tree to have been 150 to 160 years old. In the same weekly of June 29, 1876, p. 3, Samuel Fritz, postmaster of Weisenberg, now New Smithville, reported that a STEER owned by Charles Herring got on the low end of his wagonshed roof, broke through and fell backwards into a 'dengelstock' (sythe-hammering-post), breaking its back.

In the weekly "Berks and Schuylkill Journal," Reading, Jan. 5, 1878, p. 3: "7 geese and about 30 chickens were stolen from Alfred Leibensperger, and 1 turkey from Charles Hering, both residing in Greenwich Township. The THIEVES had a mule which had lost one shoe, by which they were tracked and the fowls recovered in Newtown, Lehigh County, about 12 miles away." In the "Kutztown Journal," Nov. 28, 1878, p. 2: "Weisenberg, — Charles Herring had 22 TURKEYS escape his fattening pen."

Charles G. Herring was a popular dance FIDDLER by avocation. Irwin M. Hering (AA-1-7-2-4-1), a grandson, in his memoirs states that his grandfather's violin, the family HEIRLOOM, went to his uncle Penrose, (who passed it on to a grandson). Likewise, Wm. V. Herring (AA-1-7-2-3-1), another grandson, in his will avers that he possessed the grandfather's violin, and bequeathed it to a son. This heirloom had to be twins. Everybody happy.

Addison Hering attended Keystone State Normal School, now Kutztown State College, and taught a number of terms in the Greenwich Township schools in the 1870s. Also in the 1870s and early 80s he was a MILLER in Greenwich Township; at Lynnville in Lehigh County; and at Virginville in Berks County.

At this time land and railroad interests were promoting THE WEST. Quoting, "Berks and Schuylkill Journal," Reading, of Apr. 12, 1879, "Reuben Dewalt of Kutztown continues to deliver lectures in portions of Berks and Lehigh counties relative to the West, for the purpose of inducing emigration thither."

During the week of Feb. 19th of 1883, Ephraim Dietrich and Addison Hering jointly loaded a box car with their household furnishings and farm implements for shipment to Silver Lake, Shawnee County, KANSAS, and then traveled to that point in day coaches, however, their freight car was three weeks and one day in transit. A Shawnee County tax receipt describes A. L. Hering's land as the N.E. quarter of Section 14, Township 10, Range 14, School District #69; the quarter-section being 160 acres of UNBROKEN PRAIRIE, unimproved. Dietrich had a quarter nearby. Breaking prairie required a special plow and extra horses. The only trees were cottonwoods along Big Soldier Creek, below line of sight on the prairie level. Homesteading was pioneering all over again. His brothers Henry and John had preceded him to Kansas, but young and single.

On account of his wife's recurring malaria and for economic reasons, after seven seasons, Addison Hering RETURNED to Pennsylvania and milling, his former occupation. On Dec. 31, 1889, he, his wife and son William arrived on the evening train at Dreibelbis in Greenwich Township, Berks County, and took residence with his 64 year old widowed father-in-law, VENUS DIETRICH, gristmill owner and operator there. The latter's 84 year old widowed mother, 'Polly' Dietrich, lived in a small brick house next to her son's, built in 1879, after her husband, GEORGE B. DIETRICH's passing and the sale of the mill to Venus in 1878. Venus died in 1891 and Addison Hering purchased the mill property from the Estate, Mar. 13, 1895, which he owned and operated the rest of his life.

THE MILL was three stories high, with a 2½ story addition, the lower story walls of stone, and the upper stories of log construction, clapboard covered by the above time. There were two pairs of stones one for custom feed grinding and a pair of French burrs for flour milling, however, stone flour making had already been discontinued. There was also a smaller set of stones for cornmeal making. The mill was powered by water by a half-mile long race from a dam on MAIDEN CREEK, also known by its Indian name ONTELAUNEE, of which the English name is a translation. The race also served a sawmill, and earlier, a clover-mill, both halfway down race.

The mill, originally an OIL MILL, the sawmill, the milldam and race, were all developed in Colonial time, apparently by Christopher Sunday (Sontag), and operated by him until 1800, when by an agreement dated Jan. 29th, subject to certain provisions, he sold the properties to his two sons, John and George Sunday. The stone clover-mill, located at the sawmill, was erected later, and still later was converted into a cider-mill.

During the time of the Dietrich's and Addison Hering, the gristmill property included a tract of 6 acres, 114 perches, on the east side of Maiden Creek, and detached above it, the milldam included a tract of 22 acres, 6 perches, on the west side of the creek, all in Greenwich Township, (Berks Co. Deed Bk. 208, p. 166). After Addison Hering's passing, his son William purchased the property and RAZED THE MILL in 1928, it having outlived its usefulness. By the irony of fate, this valley will be INUNDATED by 1982, if the plans of the Delaware River Basin Commission to build the proposed 8150 acre Maiden Creek Dam are carried out.

Addison Hering also served on the Greenwich Township school board and, for many years, in the Dunkel's Church choir.

BENJAMIN HERING, b. May 14, 1805 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., d. Jan. 25, 1837 in Eldred (then Upper Mahantongo) Twp., Schuylkill Co., son of Georg and Elisabeth (DeLong) Hering; m. in Greenwich Twp.,

LYDIA STEIN, b. Mar. 5, 1802 in Weisenberg Twp., Lehigh Co., d. Aug. 3, 1850 in Eldred Twp., dau. of Anthony and Sarah Stein. Both bd. Howerter Cem., Northumberland Co., near Pitman, Sch. Co. T/ss. Issue:

1. Sarah A. Hering Yoder, 1823-1866, (AA-1-9-1),
2. Jonas Haring, 1827-1902, (AA-1-9-2),
3. Carolina Hering, b. May 31, 1829, d. betw. 1840 and 1850 U.S. censuses,
4. Cornelius Herring, 1831-1898, (AA-1-9-1),
5. George S. Herring, 1833-1864, (AA-1-9-5),
6. Benjamin Herring, 1835-1916, (AA-1-9-6).

Benjamin Hering was born during the administration of Thomas Jefferson, 3rd president of the United States. By the age inscribed on his grave marker, he would have been born on May 14, 1803. However, the correct date is more probably May 14, 1805, to agree with the listings in order of age of all the children in several Berks County Orphans Court records in 1812, 1814 and 1815.

On Jan. 6, 1815, after both his mother and father had died, leaving eight children, Andreas Kamp (1755-1847) was appointed GUARDIAN of the three under the age of 14, namely, Catharine, Benjamin and Daniel Hering (Berks Co. O.C. V. 4 #2, p. 118). Andrew Kamp was the eldest son of George Kamp, leading pioneer settler in the community.

On May 2, 1817 Benjamin Hering was a CONFIRMAND, and on May 18, 1823 he and his wife Lydia were communicants in the New Bethel Zion Lutheran Church in Greenwich Township. The last record of him here was on Dec. 6, 1824 in a collection for the services of Pastor John Knosky.

Early in the Spring of 1825, Anthony Stein, weaver and farmer, and wife Sarah; his son George Stein and wife Catharine; another son David Stein and wife Salome; and his daughter Lydia with her husband BENJAMIN HERING and child Sarah Anna; all REMOVED from Greenwich Township, Berks County to Eldred, then still part of Upper Mahantongo Township, Schuylkill County, where Benjamin Hering purchased a tract of land on Apr. 11, 1825. Eldred Township was formed in 1849. The next record we have is the baptism on May 8, 1825 of a child of George Stein, with Benjamin and Lydia Hering as sponsors, in Howerter's Church in Upper Mahantongo Valley, just west of the county line, in Northumberland County. This was a 'union' church, destroyed by fire some years ago, and since replaced by two relocated churches, the Lutheran being St. James' at Pitman in Schuylkill County. Pitman was formerly Zimmermantown. Former Leib and Franklin Square were located on the next road to the south. The Herings and some of the Steins are buried in the cemetery at the location of the former Howerter's Church. The original Hering markers are intact and legible, however in German. His marker bears the unusual spelling 'Hehring.'

JOHANNES HERING (John Hering) b. Apr. 14, 1765 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., d. c1835, same twp., son of Georg and Marcretha (Unangst) Hering; m.,

ELISABETH HERING, b. Apr. 12, 1769 in Greenwich, d. in Greenwich, date unknown; dau. of Johannes and Eva Maria (Unangst) Hering (AB). Issue:

1. Magdalena Hering Emmert, 1790, (AA-3-1).
2. Elisabeth Hering Ruff, 1793-1876, (AA-3-2).
3. Johannes Hering, c1795-c1830, (AA-3-3).
4. Catharine Hering Stichler Buck, 1800-1869, (AA-3-4).
5. Peter Herring, 1801-1892, (AA-3-5).
6. Maria Hering Croll, 1801-1884, (AA-3-6).
7. Hannah Hering, born c1806, living 1848, n/f/r.
8. Adam Herring, 1814-1889, (AA-3-8).

John Hering was born a subject of King George III of England. The baptisms of John and Elisabeth Hering are entered in the record book of the Lutheran Congregation in Greenwich Township, now New Bethel Zion Church. The parents of each were the sponsors of each in turn, and the infants were cousins. The marriage of the two is attested in an Orphans Court petition of May 1, 1793 in the Estate of John Hering of Greenwich Township, leaving a widow, Eva Maria, and six children, including "Elisabeth, wife of John Hering," (Berks Co. O.C., R.E. Bk. 4, p. 204).

MILITIA: At the age of 22 and single, John Hering served as recorded in "Pennsylvania Archives," 6th Series, V. 3, p. 91: "Pay Roll of Capt. Madero's Company, Militia of Berks County, ordered to Wyoming (Valley), arrived at Fort Allen (now Carbon County) Nov. 21, 1787, at Wyoming Nov. 26th, discharged Jan. 6, 1788, allowed five days to go home: John Herring, Pvt., 2 mo., 21 days."

RESIDENCE: According to the U.S. census and Berks County tax lists, John Hering resided in Greenwich Township from 1790 through 1816, in Maxatawny Township from 1820 through 1824, in Kutztown from 1825 through 1829, and again in Greenwich from 1830 through 1834, married, but not a land owner. He apparently was in the employ of land owners who at that time furnished their workers with house and provisions as a major part of wages.

Elisabeth Hering's father, John Hering (c1742-1778), served in the REVOLUTIONARY WAR as follows: "Records of the Comptroller General, Military Accounts, Militia, Lieutenancy of Berks County, Operations 1777: Bern Township, February 20th, 1778, I do hereby certify that JOHN HERING has served two months under me Battalion as substitute. Witness me Hand, Michael Lindennuth, Colonel." The original document is on file with, and official copies may be obtained from The Division of Public Records of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, 221 Educational Building, Harrisburg Pa.

John and Elisabeth Hering undoubtedly are BURIED at New Bethel Zion Church among the many early unmarked graves there.

BIOGRAPHICAL ERRORS: In the "Historical and Biographical Annals of Berks County," by M. L. Montgomery, published 1909, V. 2, p. 1226, it is stated that: "Catharine (Hering) Herman (1830-1907) was a daughter of Peter and Rebecca (Steiger) Hering, and granddaughter of 'Peter' and Elisabeth (Hering) Hering." However, according to the U.S. census and Berks County tax lists of the time, there was NO 'Peter Hering, Senior,' in fact, and the grandfather's name should have been reported as 'John' Hering (1765-c1835) instead. This error first appeared in, and was probably copied from, the "Book of Biographies of Berks County," published 1898, pages 216 and 631. Undoubtedly the original informer was Catharine (Hering) Herman (AA-3-5-3), who did have a grandfather named 'Peter' in Peter Steiger (1760-1842), living until she was 12 years old, and it is obvious that she or the original reporter confused him with her grandfather Hering who had died earlier when she was only 5 years old.

5. Joseph Hering, 1825-1903, (AA-3-3-5),
6. William Haring, 1828-1910, (AA-3-3-6).

John Hering was born during the 2nd term of the administration of George Washington; no record of the exact date. In 1817 he was a married taxpayer in Greenwich Township. From 1820 through 1824 he was in the U.S. census and Berks County tax lists as a resident of Maxatawny Township, and from 1825 through 1829 as a resident of Kutztown. He died of SMALLPOX, late in 1829 or early in 1830, exact date unknown.

Quoting "Historical and Biographical Annals of Berks County," by

M. L. Montgomery, 1909, V. 2, p. 1197, col. 1: "John Haring was born in Greenwich Township, — married Christina Delp. Among their children was a son Philip." Christina (Delp) Hering resided in Kutztown from 1830 through 1837, in Greenwich Township in the 1840 U.S. census, in Kutztown in the 1850 census, and in Reading in 1860 and 1870 where she died, a member of St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Reading.

9. George G. Herring, twin, 1858-1928, (AA-3-3-1-9).

Born during James Monroe's first term as president of the United States, John Hering became fatherless at about the age of eleven and apparently was raised to maturity in the family of his Delp grandparents, in Richmond Township. Then, according to the 1840 U.S. census, it appears that he and his mother with some of her children had removed to Greenwich Township, where he met his wife. Probably the very next year, his mother removing to Kutztown, he returned to Richmond Township, where he set-up his own family, remaining until about 1857, when he removed to Maxatawny Township, and in 1859 to Greenwich Township, where he owned and operated a farm about 1½ miles southeast of New Bethel Zion Church, for the rest of his life. His hobbies: hunting and fishing.

John Hering had a FAMILY REGISTER, made in 1856, on a two-color cloth-back printed form, now % Paul M. Herring (AA-3-3-1-4-1-1). The "Kutztown Journal" of Feb. 21, 1878, p. 3, reports John Herring having a RAZOR he had used for 42 years, which he had purchased new for an eleven pence piece. His son DANIEL, a stonemason, died aged 20 of typhoid fever.

THE GEORGE LINE:

Philip Haring was born during the administration of James Monroe, 5th president of the United States. After his father's decease, he is on record as living with his mother in Kutztown, Pa. until 1832, when he was eight years old. Then in the 1840 census it appears that he was still living with his mother, now in Greenwich Township, when he was sixteen. Tradition has it however, that he was only twelve when he was taken into a Shollenberger family in Oley Township on the farm lately occupied by Morris M. Mathias, between Griesemersville and Oley Line, where he remained until married at age 22.

Indicating his places of residence, the first of his children was born in Ruscombmanor Township, Berks County in 1847; the next six in Oley Township, where he sold his property on Mar. 28, 1859, and thereafter lived in WOODCHOPPERTOWN, Earl Township, to the age of 85. He was a shoemaker, carpenter and farmer.

The SPELLING of his name was originally 'Hering' and is so recorded in the Family Register of his Bible 21 times out of 22. A grave marker in 1856 is inscribed 'Hering;' one in 1869, 'Häring;' and all others from 1881 and after, 'Haring.'

Daniel E. Haring, cabinetmaker, funeral director in Friedensburg, constable in Earl Township, on consistory of Oley Reformed Church, secretary of Woodchoppertown Sunday School, had contract for rebuilding of Woodchoppertown schoolhouse in 1881, removed to Gilbertsville in 1916, and attained the age of 90.

CIVIL WAR: Daniel Hearing enlisted in Company I, 105th Regiment Pa. Volunteer Infantry, 2nd Brigade, 3rd Division, was mustered in at Reading, Pa. on Mar. 21, 1865, and mustered out at Pittsburgh, Pa. on July 11, 1865. He was in engagements at Petersburg, Saylor's Creek and Hatches Run, was present at GENERAL LEE'S SURRENDER. Called the 'little soldier,' he was only 5' 2". He continued spelling his name 'Hearing' long after the war. His Bible family register has 'Haring' once, 'Haering' three times, and 'Herring' three times. The grave markers are 'Haring.'

ELIZABETH FULLAWAY, b. Nov. 27, 1843 in Wilmington, DELAWARE, d. Oct. 16, 1911 in Reading, bd. Chas. Evans Cem., T/s; dau. of John and Eliza Fullaway, natives of Bath, England. No issue.

Joseph Hering is on record as living with his widowed mother in Kutztown until at least 1837, when he was 11, and apparently lived with her at the 1810 U.S. census, then in Greenwich Township, at age 14. Later he was apprenticed into a Kutz family, a shoemaker, in or near Kutztown, where he learned that trade but did not follow it. Having attained the age of 21 he went to Reading early in 1847, where he was an expressman most of his life, although at one time he kept a saloon at 6th and Franklin Streets.

William Hering is on record as living with his widowed mother in Kutztown, Pa. until 1837, when he was 8, and apparently also at the 1840 U.S. census, then in Greenwich Township, Berks Co., Pa. when he was 11 years old. In the 1850 census he resided with his sister Lydia and her husband Gideon Folk in Reading. From 1855 through 1877 he appears in the assessment lists of the Borough of PALO ALTO in Schuylkill County where was a locomotive ENGINEER. A deed of sale dated Apr. 11, 1878 is the last record of him here, when in consequence of a prolonged railroad strike, he removed to Clinton, IOWA. In his Bible family register the name is spelled "Haring," as is his grave marker.

7. Charles Hering, 1841-1915, (AA-3-5-7),
8. Elizabeth Hering Frey, 1843-1913, (AA-3-5-8).

Born in the year Thomas Jefferson was inaugurated 3rd president of the United States, PETER HERING was confirmed May 2, 1817 in New Bethel Zion Lutheran Church. Quoting "History of Lehigh County," 1914, V. 3, p. 1024, he "was a descendant of George Hering who settled in Greenwich Township," Berks County. He was a BLACKSMITH in Greenwich, near Lenhartsville, until after the 1880 U.S. census, when he retired to live with his daughter, Mrs. James Eck in Reading, where he died at age 91. His name was spelled variously; on his grave marker it is "HERRING."

In July 1859 he brought to the office of the weekly "Hamburger Schnellpost" (Fast Mail), a stalk of OATS and one of timothy, each measuring 5' 3" tall. In 1875 Reading and Kutztown papers reported the Herrings celebrating their GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. All their children and families, with one exception, were present. In his late years he made woven wood-strip BASKETS, and CHAIRS with woven wood-strip seats, of which specimens are still in the family.

ACCIDENT: The "Berks and Schuylkill Journal" of June 3, 1882, supp., p. 2, reports: "Shoemakersville, May 29th; Peter Herring and wife of Reading, formerly of Greenwich Township, came here on Friday to visit their son Charles. On Saturday while the son was making ready to haul a load of firewood from Stoudt's sawmill, Peter was holding the horse while the body was being put on the wagon. The horse frightened and ran away, the wagon passing over both father and son, breaking the elder 80 year old man's right leg two inches above the ankle. The son suffered internal injuries. The horse and wagon were found at the Schuylkill River uninjured and undamaged." The same newspaper, on Jan. 24, 1885, p. 3, reports that the fracture never set properly and that Peter was still walking only with the aid of crutches.

PETER STEIGER, b. Aug. 17, 1760, d. Aug. 18, 1842, was a REVOLUTIONARY WAR soldier (Berks and Schuylkill Journal, Reading, Nov. 17, 1849, p. 1). In his Will he names surviving sons Samuel, Jacob (1792-1868), Daniel, Peter, Jr., Jonathan (1805-1878), Solomon; and daughter Rebecca, wife of Peter Hering; and bequeathes a 10 acre tract and dwelling where she was then living, to his daughter Rebecca C. Hering. (Berks Co. Will Bk. 8, p. 436 and O.C. R.E. Bk. 28, p. 545).

I. D. Wilson Herring, 1851-1911, (AA-3-5-1-1).

Baptized 'John Peter Hering' in the records of Dunkel's Church, he was apparently named for his grandfather John Hering and his father Peter. He however became known as 'Peter Hering' and his grave marker is so inscribed. His sponsors were Henry and Elisabeth Ruff, an aunt and her husband. He had served an apprenticeship under Samuel Fister, shoemaker, but died at the age of 22 of consumption.

THE STETZLER LINE:

12. Lavina Herring (11) Balliet, 1862-1926, (AA-3-8-12).

George Adam Hering was born during the administration of James Madison, 4th president of the United States, and was baptized in the New Bethel Zion Church in Greenwich Township, Berks County, after which we have no record of him until the 1840 U.S. census when, at the age of 25, he is enumerated in West Penn Township, Schuylkill County as Adam Haring, and married. His neighbors on either side were John Lorah, father-in-law, and Jacob Lorah, brother-in-law, all in Lizard Creek Valley. In 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1880 he is enumerated in Mahoning Township, Carbon County, as a SHOEMAKER.

In 1849 Adam Herring purchased a seven acre property north of and near the New Mahoning village crossroad, where he resided the rest of his life. During our research, Rev. C. D. Kressley, an elderly Lutheran minister, related to us that Adam had been an attentive parishioner at St. John's Mahoning Valley Church, 4-6/10 miles west of Lehigh, Pa., where he is buried. He is said to have had 13 children, one more than we have accounted for.

We are told by William Lechleitner (AA-3-8-5-2) that his late wife Harriet, a granddaughter of Adam, recalled hearing her father relate that Adam Herring occasionally WALKED from New Mahoning to Reading to buy shoe findings. This however was no doubt tied in with visiting his relatives in Berks County.

CATHARINA ELISABETH HERING, b. Oct. 3, 1767 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., dau. of Georg and Marcretha (Unangst) Hering; m., GEORGE ADAM KAMP, b. Jan. 25, 1765 in Greenwich Twp., son of Georg and Anna Maria (Koriner) Kamp.

Baptisms of both are in the New Bethel Zion Church record book. Catharina was confirmed by Rev. Daniel Schumacher on Good Friday 1780. Kamp served with George Herring in Capt. Jacob Ladig's Company, Berks County Militia in 1781, and also served in 1788. He was a taxpayer in Greenwich from 1792 to 1797. As a witness on a Deed dated Apr. 19, 1798, is the last known record of him in Greenwich. WHEREABOUTS UNKNOWN.

FAMILY AA-6

MARIA HERING, b. Dec. 20, 1772 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., d. Dec. 20, 1842 in Weisenberg Twp., Northampton (now Lehigh) Co., dau. of Georg and Marcretha (Unangst) Hering; m. May 5, 1795 by Rev. Frederick Obenhausen, JOHANNES GEHRINGER, b. Dec. 26, 1771 in Weisenberg Twp., d. Feb. 17, 1848, same twp., son of Nicholas and Elisabeth (Schwam) Gehringer. Both bd. New Bethel Zion Ch. Cem., Greenwich Twp. T/ss. Her maiden name is spelled 'Höring' on the grave marker. No issue.

FAMILY AB

JOHANNES HERING (John Hering), born about 1740 in Europe, died in 1778 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., son of Johann Görg HÖRING; immigrated with father's family, Aug. 21, 1750 at Philadelphia, ship 'Brothers,' married c1760 in Greenwich Twp.,

EVA MARIA UNANGST, born Sept. 25, 1742 in Bödighheim, Baden, Germany, died after 1818 in Pennsylvania, daughter of Andreas and Maria Katharine (Brunn) Unangst; immigrated with father's family, Sept. 19, 1749 at Philadelphia, ship 'Patience.' Issue:

1. Catharina Hering Werner, 1761, (AB-1),
2. Christina Hering Gruber, 1763-1849, (AB-2),
3. Margaret Hering Ginter, 1766, (AB-3),
4. Elisabeth Hering Hering, 1769, (AA-3),
5. (Johann) Georg Hering, 1772, (AB-5),
6. Maria Hering Uhl, c1775, (AB-6).

Johannes Hering and his only brother Georg married the two only daughters of Andreas Unangst, probably in a double ceremony in the year 1760. It appears that thereupon all of their elders' lands were divided between the two brothers. Johannes paid provincial taxes on his land from 1762 until 1778, when his widow became the taxpayer. Incidental to owning land, it was necessary for him and his brother to take out naturalization papers in Philadelphia, which they did on Sept. 28, 1765 (see Title XI).

Johannes Hering occupied the REMER-HERRING TRACT described hereinbefore under his father's family (A). By 1765 he had cleared 25 acres of his land. The total acreage no doubt was more than the 200 acres it was called when his estate was settled after his son came of age in 1783. It was then appraised at 500 pounds in Pennsylvania currency, gold or silver, at which valuation the son accepted it. All of his daughters are also named, as well as their respective husbands, except Maria's, she still being a minor and single. (Berks County Orphans Court R.E. Vol. 4, p. 204, May 1, 1793).

In an Inventory of his PERSONAL PROPERTY there is an item of 4 pounds, 12 shillings and 6 pence for BOOKS, and another for 58 pounds 13 shillings 9 pence "ready" money. The total appraisal was £305 3s. 9d. on Feb. 18, 1778. The final account for personal property rendered May 8, 1779 showed a balance of £324 12s. 19d.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR: Quoting an original document on file in the Division of Public Records of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, 221 Educational Building, Harrisburg, Pa., "Records of the Comptroller General, Military Accounts, Militia, Lieutenantcy of Berks County, Operations 1777: Bern Township, Feb. 20th, 1778, I do hereby certify that JOHN HERING has served two months under me Battalion as substitute. Witness me Hand, MICHAEL LINDENMUTH, Colonel."

The exact date of John Hering's death is not recorded but probably occurred in the first few days of January, 1778, as LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION were granted to the widow on the 20th of that month. Johannes and Eva Maria Hering are no doubt buried at New Bethel Zion Church among the many now unmarked graves there.

FAMILY AB-1

CATHARINA HERING, b. Sept. 4, 1761 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co.,

dau. of Johannes and Eva Maria (Unangst) Hering; m. c1790, ANDREW WERNER, son of Martin and Catharine Werner. Had issue
5 sons and 3 daughters.

Catharina Hering's baptism is recorded in the New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich record book. Andrew Werner, married, appears in the 1790 U.S. census of Greenwich Twp., and in Manheim Twp., (now) Schuylkill Co., in 1800. He died before the 1810 census, when his widow and children were enumerated in Brunswick Twp., (now) Schuylkill Co. In 1828 the widow and eight of his brothers and sisters were residents of Montgomery County, OHIO. (Sch. Co. Deed Bk. 6, p. 112.)

MARGARET HERING, b. Sept. 1, 1766 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co.,
dau. of Johannes and Eva Maria (Unangst) Hering; m.,

JOHN ADAM GINTER, named in the John Hering estate, May 1, 1793
(Berks Co. O.C. R.E. Vol. 4, p. 204). He was probably related to PHILIP GINDER, discoverer of anthracite coal. N/f/r.

FAMILY AB-5

(JOHANN) GEORG HERING, b. Apr. 4, 1772 in Greenwich Twp., Berks
Co., son of Johannes and Eva Maria (Unangst) Hering; m. May 6, 1794 in Weisenberg Twp., (now) Lehigh Co. by Rev. J. H. Helfrich, Reformed,

SUSANNA BILLIG, b. c1773 in Greenwich Twp., d. (before 1830 census) in Upper Mahanoy Twp., Northumberland Co., dau. of Emmanuel and Regina Billig, g-dau. of Johannes Arnold Billig, immigrant Sept.
29, 1733. Issue:

1. Catharina Hering, b. July 25, 1794 in Greenwich Twp., confirmed June 6, 1813 in Klinger's Ch., Lykens Twp., Dauphin Co., n/f/r,
2. Magdalena Hering b. Oct. 23, 1795 in Greenwich, confirmed June 6, 1813 in Klinger's
Ch., communicant 1818, n/f/r,
3. Maria Hering, b. Nov. 29, 1797 in Greenwich, communicant at Klinger's 1821, n/f/r,
4. (Johann) Georg Hering, 1799, (AB-5-4),
5. Solomon Hering, 1802, (AB-5-5),
6. Rebecca Hering, b. c1805, was a communicant at Klinger's in 1824, n/f/r.

Johann Georg Höring was baptized Apr. 12, 1772, the sponsors were Georg and Margaretha Höring, his uncle and aunt, recorded in the New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich record book. In the U.S. census of 1800 he was enumerated in Greenwich Township, Berks County; in 1810 in Upper Mahantongo Township; then in Berks, now Schuylkill County; and in 1820 and 1830 in Upper Mahanoy Township, Northumberland County, the latter also in the Mahantongo Valley. He was a taxpayer in Greenwich Township from 1795 through 1803; in Upper Mahantongo Township in 1805 through 1811; in Upper Mahanoy Township in 1807 through 1834, on as high as 200 acres.

His six children all appear in the records of Klinger's Church near Klingerstown, as communicants at various times from 1813 through 1827. He signed his name 'Georg Hörung' (1800), but he is commonly called 'George Herring' or 'Hering' in public records. On June 17, 1834 he purchased a 30 acre property in Augusta Township, (Northumberland Co. Deed Bk. Z, p. 197). Here George Hering apparently died before the 1840 census, place of burial unknown.

AB-5-4

(JOHANN) GEORG HERING, born Nov. 21, 1799 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., son of (Johann) Georg and Susanna (Billig) Hering, was baptized Feb. 9, 1880 as recorded in the New Bethel Zion Church record book. Known as 'GEORGE HERING,' he was a communicant of record in Klinger's Church, Lykens Township, Dauphin County in 1817, 1819 and 1827.

By 1828 he appears to have been married and operating an extensive property; quoting the daily "Reader's Adler" (Eagle) of Sept. 30, 1828, p. 4: "Orphans Court Sale of Property of William Witman Estate, — An order of an Orphans Court of Northumberland County held in Sunbury, Aug. 26, 1828, of public sale on Oct. 9th 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. at the public house of Benjamin Merkel in Upper Mahanoy Township, being a farm and dwelling about 1½ miles from Klingerstown; 230 acres, 80 cleared, 1½ story house, log kitchen, large Swiss barn in good condition, meadow, orchard of 100 apple and other fruit trees, spring, patented land, presently OCCUPIED BY GEORGE HERRING, JUNIOR."

The Northumberland County TAX LIST of 1829 for Upper Mahanoy Township reads: "George Herring, Jr., REMOVED." Unfortunately, where he removed to is unknown.

AB-5-5

SOLOMON HERING, b. Feb. 26, 1802 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., son of (Johann) Georg and Susanna (Billig) Hering; m.,

CATHARINA, maiden-name unknown. Issue:

1. Moses Hering, b. Dec. 5, 1824 in Upper Mahanoy Twp., Northumberland Co., n/f/r.

Solomon Hering was baptized in New Bethel Zion Church of Greenwich Township, Mar. 29, 1802. He was a communicant in Klinger's Church of Lykens Township, Dauphin County in 1823 and 1825, and brought a son (Moses) to baptism there on Oct. 15, 1825. In 1828 he was on the TAX LIST of Northumberland County for 80 acres of land in Upper Mahanoy Township. No further record. He probably removed with his brother (above), destination unknown.

AB-6

MARIA HERING, b. c1775 in Greenwich Twp., Berks Co., dau. of Johannes and Eva Maria (Unangst) Hering; m. c1792,

JACOB UHL, b. in Greenwich Twp., son of Charles and Catharine Uhl. Issue:

1. Catharine Uhl, b. Apr. 25, 1793,

2. Esther Uhl, b. Apr. 29, 1795, both b. in Greenwich Twp.

Jacob Uhl paid TAXES in Greenwich in 1792 through 1797. No further record.

SALINDA ADAMS, b. Nov. 26, 1855 in Warwick Twp., Lancaster Co., d. Apr. 21, 1938 in Lititz. Both bd. United Evangelical Cem., Lititz. T/s. Issue:

1. Jacob A. Hearing, 1877-1914, (ADD. III-1),
2. Elizabeth Hearing Hollinger, 1881-1916, (ADD. III-2),
3. Louisa Hearing, b. Oct. 8, 1890, single, r. Wernersville, Pa. State Hosp.,
4. Amanda Hearing, b. Nov. 8, 1894, d. Oct. 29, 1898, bd. as above, T/s.

Chas. F. Hearing for 14 years drove the Thos. H. Keller pretzel team, and was a temperate, industrious and reliable man, said "The New Era," Lancaster, Feb. 28, 1902, p. 2, and that on Feb. 19th, after delivering pretzels at Hahnstown, he suffered a SEIZURE and was carried into the Hotel, and that on the next day his son brought him home and although he regained consciousness he never recovered his speech.

Chas. F. Hearing's MOTHER was Sabina Siegfried (1828-1878), daughter of Joseph and Elisabeth (Saeger) Siegfried of Maxatawny Township, Berks County. Sabina later married George Hoffman of Lynn Township, Lehigh County, and is buried on the Jesse and Lydia (Siegfried) Laros lot in Ziegel Church Cemetery, Lehigh County.

As to Chas. F. Hearing's FATHER, there is no documentation available, hence the following deduction: Although in his obituary in the Lancaster "New Era" he is called 'Charles Franklin,' his given name may in fact have been 'Charles Frederick,' and so called for the alleged father. By circumstances of time and place, there was in nearby Greenwich Township a 'Frederick Charles' (called Charles) Hering (1823-1886), son of Georg and Hannah (Georg) Hering (AA-1-7), and possibly the father.

Salinda Adams was a daughter of Jacob and Catherine Adam (without the 's').

Josiah Hearing was commissioned Mar. 20, 1852 an AID-DE-CAMP of Berks County MILITIA by Gov. Wm. F. Johnston. On Dec. 1, 1854 he was sworn in as PROTHONOTARY of Berks County and served a term of three years.

In 1831 through 1834, Jacob Herring appeared in the Tax Lists of Windsor Township, Berks County, apparently a cigarmaker in the then unincorporated town of Hamburg, widowed about 1835, and the father of Josiah aged about 17, now returning to Spinnerstown in Bucks County, where he worked in the tobacco trade to old age, living alone. Josiah, remaining in Hamburg, apparently became associated with the family of William Feather (1791-1849), tanner, businessman and postmaster.

In Hamburg, Josiah Hearing's first known business venture, at the age of 24 and single, was CABINETMAKING, advertising in the local weekly "Schnellpost" (Fast Mail) of Nov. 1, 1842 and subsequent issues, referring to his "ware-room," formerly J. Seilel & Bro., featuring "cabinetware, chairs, dressing-bureaus, etc., in the latest Philadelphia mode." In Sept. 1844 he was a DELEGATE from Hamburg to the Democratic County Convention.

In Reading, on Mar. 15, 1845 he advertised in the "Berks and Schuylkill Journal" having opened a "Cabinet-Ware-Room" on Penn Street, between 6th and 7th, where he "manufactured and kept on hand a general assortment of the most modern and improved style FURNITURE." In June 1845 he added UNDERTAKING, "having provided himself with a splendid hearse." These ventures appear to have failed in 1851. By the 1860 U.S. census he was in the GROCERY business at the above location, with stock valued at $14,000., and real estate at $7,000. A year later however, he failed again.

He was also an active Real Estate BROKER in Reading, removing to and continuing that business in PHILADELPHIA from the early 1860s to the end of his career.

The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow \infty$. The second part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow 0$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow 0$.

The third part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow \infty$. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow 0$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow 0$.
